THE WESTERN AND ABSOLUTISM, THE INDIGENOUS AND THE GODS OF POLYNESIA AND THE PHILIPPINES.

If you are brave: read this essay from beginning to end and then draw your own conclusions. But, if you are a cowardly fanatic who is afraid of discovering that everything you were taught is false: you can stop reading this essay right now.

The problem with many vegans, animalists, sensitivity-centrists, feminists and environmentalists is that they have that Western, European, fanatical and extremist all-or-nothing way of thinking that is based on perfectionism.

For example, many vegans and many animal activists say they are not speciesists, but the majority only care about animals domesticated by humans, they do not care about wild animals, and they do not care that the destruction of indigenous territories causes the death of millions of animals. wild, then they are speciesists because they discriminate against wild animals.

That's why there are Right-wing vegans, Neoliberals and capitalists.

Many vegans and animalists say they are aware that humans are biologically and scientifically animals, but when they judge and condemn indigenous ethnic groups they make it clear that they do not really believe that humans are animals, and that deep down they still have that Judeo-Christian way of thinking that humans are not animals.

For this reason, there are vegans who are Jews, Christians or Islamic without caring that this god preferred Abel's animal sacrifice and rejected the plant offerings that Cain offered him.

In the case of sensocentrists, I can give as an example Damo, who is a sensocentrist vegan from Argentina. I remember that in a video he said something like perhaps the best thing would be for the world to be destroyed so that no being with the capacity to feel suffers, because You need to exist to suffer, so this is an all-or-nothing and fanatical way of thinking that says that everything always has to be happiness, well-being and life in an absolute and perfectionist way.

This way of thinking is very reminiscent of Gnosticism and Buddhism which affirm that existence is the same as suffering, or in the case of Gnosticism which affirms that this world was created by a false god or demiurge, that it is a prison or hell, and that sees everything in terms of all or nothing, without an intermediate vision that creates a balance.

In the case of feminism, many times, just as white ethnic groups, monotheistic religions and Gnosticism consider light and darkness as enemies in war and not as complements, feminism often does the same thing of considering man and women as enemies in war and not as complements, and because of that all-or-nothing absolutist way of thinking, they consider gender roles to be always a bad thing.

This is very reminiscent of the Amazons in Greek mythology who were Greek women who hated men.

According to Greek mythology: the Amazons were warrior women in accordance with the concept of war that the white ethnic groups had, these women sought to be warriors just like the soldiers of the white ethnic groups, that is, although they hated men, they sought to be equal to men of those white ethnicities.

About why the European colonizers (Spanish and Portuguese) gave the name of the Amazons to this place on the continent, is because, being sexists, they consider the masculine and the feminine as enemies in war with the same as those feminists I am referring to, so since for them the indigenous represents the feminine, for them naming the place with the name of the Amazon is a way to say that it represents the wild feminine that must be dominated and subdued according to its absolutist way of thinking.

Furthermore, many feminists want to be equal to sexist men. And because of the absolutist thinking of all or nothing, they consider that you cannot be sensitive and a warrior at the same time, that you cannot cry and fight against those who deserve it at the same time.

It is that absolutist way of thinking (all or nothing) of either crying, being sensitive and empathetic all the time and with everyone, or being cruel, warlike and insensitive all the time and with everyone, without balance.

This reminds us of Isabel of Castile (the Catholic) who financed the colonization of this continent, of Inés Suárez who was a colonizing woman, of the women who practice bullfighting and hunting for pleasure (without being a necessity to survive), of Jeanine Añez, Dilma Boluarte, Keiko Fujimori and all the women who, like sexist men, believe that harming the weakest is strength, that harming the most vulnerable is power and that harming the innocent is bravery.

They are those kinds of feminists who say they hate sexist men, but want women to be equal to those sexist men they say they hate.

I too, when I have met feminist women, have seen that, although many of them say they hate sexist men, when they have a sexist man on their side it gives them pleasure and they want to be like that man, and some of them (except those who They are vegan) they go to venues where cowboy men on horses appear.

In the case of environmentalists, they often only care about wild animals and not animals domesticated by humans, which is why they often propose exterminating animals such as cats, which they consider invasive species and harmful to ecosystems.

And on the other hand are the sensory centrists who consider that individuals can live without ecosystems, and who in a way say that only individuals matter and not ecosystems (collective).

However, these ecologists also deny that humans are animals, because the majority of humans who are not indigenous are the ones who destroy and contaminate ecosystems the most, but since they are humans they never propose to exterminate them, unlike what they do with cats.

These environmentalists have a Celtic or Viking way of thinking in the sense that although livestock farming, which is dedicated to raising bulls, cows, sheep and goats for meat, milk, leather, wool and dairy products, causes the destruction of forests and jungles to make pastures for these animals, and causes excessive emissions of methane and carbon dioxide, and the urine of cows emits excessive emissions of nitrogen, and the water is contaminated with the blood, excrement and waste of these animals: most of environmentalists do not see livestock farming that is dedicated to raising these animals as a problem, as if they consider cats as a problem.

And environmental organizations like WWF and GreenPeace never attack livestock farming that is dedicated to raising these animals, and they never run television campaigns against livestock farming that is dedicated to raising these animals and that was developed by white ethnic groups.

Conflict is part of nature, humans are animals, in all human races there are traitors, utopia does not exist, utopia would not exist and perfection does not exist. Nature is not utopia.

Therefore, when indigenous ethnic groups are stripped of their warrior part or the pacification process happens as the European colonizers said, they are simply left defenseless and vulnerable to those who harm them.

When New Age hippie people or people from peace organizations funded by the United States government visit indigenous territories and talk to them about their ideologies that say that everything has to be love and peace, they are telling the indigenous people who have to love their enemies, who have to turn the other cheek and who have to forgive everything because according to them forgiveness is healing 🧘🏻‍♀️🧘🏻‍♂️, that is, they are telling them the same thing that the Christian religions say.

Peace and love with those who harm the most vulnerable, peace and love with those who harm the innocent, peace and love with those who harm the weakest, forgiving the oppressor and turning the other cheek to the tyrant, should be considered as crimes.

Christianity promotes hatred and violence against the weakest, the most vulnerable and the innocent. While that same Christianity with those teachings of loving your enemies, forgiving everything and turning the other cheek defends those who harm the weak, those who harm the vulnerable and those who harm the innocent.

For this reason, the Hispanists (defenders of Spanish colonization) and the defenders of other forms of European colonization such as the Portuguese, English and French always justify all the damage they did to the indigenous people, and try to soften all this, and It is also from these white ethnic groups that bullfighting comes from, hunting for pleasure (without being a necessity to survive) and cockfighting that they brought to this continent during colonization.

But, if I talk to them about revenge, resentment, and physically eliminating human tyrants like social Darwinists, they immediately defend the Christian teachings of loving one's enemies, of turning the other cheek, that revenge is bad, that resentment is reprehensible and forgiving everything, and they tell me that if I do the same to them it is because I am putting myself on the same level as them.

Christianity has this dialectic where it attacks the weakest, the most vulnerable and the innocent, and at the same time defends those who harm the weakest, those who harm the most vulnerable and those who harm the innocent when it tells the victims to forgive, to turn the other cheek and that they have to love their enemies, and tells the victims that if they defend themselves or take revenge they are savages, terrorists or criminals.

All these monsters who defend colonization always say that the indigenous ethnic groups were the same as the white ethnic groups and they will always answer that the indigenous people did the same.

But, when they mention human sacrifices by indigenous ethnic groups to promote hatred of indigenous people, they never say that white ethnic groups like the Celts, the Vikings and the others made human sacrifices, and they never talk about the human killings (sacrifices) that Christianity provoked the inquisition and the crusades.

The Jews lied in the Old Testament when they said that they were slaves of the Egyptians, the pyramids were not built by slaves, but it is the fault of the Jews that the majority, in their ignorance, believe that the pyramids were built by slaves. The Jews defame the Egyptians in the Old Testament, therefore, what the Masonic and Rosicrucian lodges do of mixing the Egyptian with the Judeo-Christian is something aberrant.

When that political right-wing Satanism called The Temple of Seth founded by Michael Aquino (who belonged to another right-wing Satanism called The Church of Satan founded by Anton Lavey), claims the Egyptian god Seth is the same devil that Jews believe in, Christians and Islamic: Seth is an Egyptian god who represents drought, desert and chaos. And the Judeo-Christian religions cause droughts, turn many places into deserts and cause chaos.

In reality, the Egyptian god Seth to whom it is assimilated is the Judeo-Christian god invented by the Jews, because the Judeo-Christian god represents the desert, drought and chaos by asking human beings to dominate or subjugate the earth, by supporting slavery and by ordering the murder of children and pregnant women.

Genesis chapter 1, verse 28: God blessed them and said to them: Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and subdue it.

Psalms chapter 8, verse 6: You made him have dominion over the works of your hands; You put everything under his feet.

Exodus chapter 21, verse 7: If anyone sells his daughter into slavery, she will not be freed like male slaves.

Colossians, chapter 3, verse 22: -You, male and female slaves, must obey your masters here on earth in everything.

Isaiah chapter 13, verse 18: They will sweep away the young with bows, they will not have mercy on the fruit of the womb, nor will their eyes have mercy on the children.

Hosea chapter 13, verse 16: Samaria will be desolate, because she rebelled against her God; They will fall by the sword; Their children will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women will be cut open.

Psalms chapter 137, verses 9: Blessed is he who takes and dashes his little ones against the rock.

Isaiah 13, verses 16 and 17: Their children will be dashed before them; Their houses will be looted, and their women raped. Behold, I awaken the Medes against them.

Quran, sura 2, verse 191: -Kill them where you find them, and expel them from where they have expelled you. Tempt is more serious than killing.

Quran, surah 24, verse 32: - Marry those of you who are not married and your honest male and female slaves.

Quran, surah 24, verse 58: -O believers! Slaves and prepubescent children must ask your permission three times: before getting up, when you take off your clothes at noon, and after going to bed.

Quran, sura 2, verse 191: -Kill them where you find them, and expel them from where they have expelled you. Tempt is more serious than killing.

Quran, sura 33, verse 61: - Cursed, they will be captured and killed without mercy wherever they are found.

Quran, sura 8, verse 12: -When your Lord inspired the angels: I am with you. Confirm then those who believe! I will strike terror into the hearts of those who do not believe. Cut their necks, hit them on all their fingers!

Remember that among the Egyptians it is the god Seth who murders the god Osiris who is then resurrected with the help of the goddess Isis. The Egyptian god Seth is a god of destruction just like the Judeo-Christian god.

Seth is also associated with war in the same meaning that white ethnic groups gave to war of invading, colonizing, subduing the most vulnerable and dominating the weakest. Therefore, the opposite of the god Seth is the god Osiris who represents the complete opposite of Seth.

Seth is the god who represents the negative and the Egyptians who choose that path or traitors. Osiris is the god who represents the positive and the Egyptians who choose that path. Just like the good indigenous people and the traitor indigenous people on this continent.

Seth represents envy, individualism and selfishness. YeHoVaH is the same Jewish god YHVH, YeHoVaH is formed by adding a vowel after each letter to the word YHVH.

Exodus chapter 15, verse 3: Jehovah is a man of war.

The meaning that Jews give to war is the same as invading and colonizing, just like the white ethnic groups of Europe such as the Vikings, Romans, Greeks, Celts, Basques, Saxons and Slavs.

Psalms chapter 144, verse 1: Blessed be the Lord, my rock, who trains my hands for battle, and my fingers for war.

And what the fictional character invented by Christians who is the son of the other fictional character invented by Jews said:

Matthew chapter 10, verse 34: Do not believe that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

Therefore, that satanic religion at the service of the capitalist right in the United States called The Temple of Seth lies when it says that Seth is the same fictional character of the devil or Satan invented by the Jews.

In reality, Seth is the same as that fictional character invented by the Jews of the Jewish god called YHVH or YeHoVaH who is the father of Jesus Christ, just as in the Greeks, Zeus was the father of Hercules, and changing the letter Z of the name Zeus for the letter D in Latin and Portuguese it is Deus.

Those who are part of this system based on oppression, rejection and hatred of indigenous people often use words to confuse, such as right-wing satanists, neo-Nazis and neo-pagans or pagans of white ethnic groups who believe that social Darwinism is the opposite of Christianity.

When in reality the teachings of Jesus Christ to love your enemies, turn the other cheek, forgive everything and not judge are teachings that favor social Darwinism because they defend those who harm the most vulnerable, they defend those who harm the weakest and they defend those who harms the innocent.

In addition, the father of Jesus Christ, who is the Jewish god YHVH or YeHoVaH, is a god in favor of social Darwinism because he supports human slavery, and orders the murder of children and women in the Old Testament.

Furthermore, all the politicians who have made hate speeches against indigenous people, supported invasions of indigenous territories, who have promoted laws that harm indigenous people and that promote the extermination of indigenous people in the present such as Jair Bolsonaro, Guillermo Lasso, Donald Trump, María Fernanda Cabal, Álvaro Uribe, Jeanine Añez, Donald Trump, VOX in Spain and others are from Christian religions, some are Catholic and others are from other Christian religions.

And they always have that cowardice of treating indigenous people as savages, criminals or terrorists when they take revenge or defend themselves.

These cowards of the Hispanistas (defenders of Spanish colonization), defenders of Portuguese colonization, defenders of English colonization and defenders of French colonization, sometimes deny feeling hatred for the indigenous people, but they always show hatred for the indigenous people when they treat them as savages, when they affirm that everything indigenous is bad and never mention anything positive about the indigenous people, when they affirm that the indigenous people are backward and did not provide contributions.

And, furthermore, that the elites and governments that cause exterminations of indigenous people in the present always use those words of savages, uncivilized and backward to refer to the indigenous people.

Also, many times they refer to indigenous people as if they were machines and not human when they affirm that all indigenous people are equal and that all indigenous people think the same. The reality is that when someone meets many indigenous people, they realize that not all of them are the same in their way of being and that not all of them are the same in their way of thinking, both in different ethnicities and within the same ethnic group.

If the majority of humans who are not indigenous, did not belong to Christian religions, did not belong to Islamic religions and did not belong to the New Age, no indigenous people of this continent to which the colonizers gave the name America and no indigenous people of Asia would have their minds colonized with those beliefs, the fault that the majority of indigenous people are not aware that those beliefs were brought by the European colonizers and will forget their own beliefs always lies with the majority who are not indigenous.

If the majority of those who are not indigenous never ate red meat, never used leather, never used wool, never drank animal milk and never took dairy products, no indigenous person would be dedicated to livestock farming that raises animals brought by the European colonizers, the blame The fact that some indigenous people fall into livestock farming dedicated to raising animals brought by the European colonizers is always the case of the majority of those who are not indigenous.

It's like these indigenous people from Mexico who protested naked in the movement of the 400 towns:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

There is nothing wrong with protesting naked, because before the European colonizers arrived, in many indigenous ethnic groups, nudity was not a bad thing, nudity was part of many rituals and ceremonies, and it was a way of connecting with nature.

But, the bad thing is that they wear cowboy boots, but I am sure that those indigenous people did not know that the livestock that is dedicated to raising these animals was brought by the European colonizers. There are ignorant people who think that Mexico's ranch culture comes from the indigenous people, when in reality that ranch culture comes from the Spanish colonizers.

It is necessary to remember that in addition to the army and the police, which in these colonialist countries have always acted as enemies of the indigenous people at the service of colonialist governments and colonialist elites: in the United States and Canada, the greatest enemies of the indigenous people and those who murdered indigenous people the most They were the cowboys.

Images recovered from the Internet

It is necessary to remember that the extermination of indigenous people of the Selknam ethnic group in Argentina and Chile was caused by businessmen to use those lands for livestock farming that is dedicated to raising those animals brought by the Europeans and that it was the same thing that happened with many indigenous ethnic groups throughout the continent where the perpetrators were mainly ranchers who raised those animals brought by the Europeans:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

It is necessary to remember that the Amazons where indigenous ethnic groups live are destroyed in a large percentage by the livestock that is dedicated to raising those animals brought by the Europeans, and that the large percentage of soybean cultivation that causes destruction of the Amazons is used to prepare fattening concentrates for these animals:

Although it is true that current veganism and current feminism have criticizable and questionable aspects. This white woman from the United States who claims to be a Pachamamist in the New Age sense of Evo Morales' Pachamama, made a video criticizing veganism:

Screenshots recovered from the Internet

She mentions in the video the importance of consuming local foods that are not imported and that are not bought in supermarkets, but animals such as cows, bulls, goats and sheep are not local because they were brought to the continent by Europeans.

It's like this feminist named Keith Lierre who wrote a book called: The Vegetarian Myth. In the book she mentions some things that are true such as that, in the industrial cultivation of plant foods, animals such as insects, rodents, rabbits and birds are also killed to protect the crops, and that pesticides are used that cause contamination and death of animals.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

But, also in the book he writes many lies such as that the majority of buffaloes in the United States were exterminated to use those lands for growing plant foods, which is 100% false. Most buffaloes in the United States were exterminated by European immigrants and European settlers who were cowboys to replace the buffaloes with cows and bulls brought from Europe.

Keith Lierre would have you believe in his book that growing plant foods alone is the problem. When in reality, the problem is monocultures and industrial agriculture (agribusiness as many Brazilians who only care about money call it in Brazil).

The indigenous ethnic groups had ways of growing plant foods that were sustainable and in harmony with the environment such as the three sisters developed by the Iroquois and other indigenous ethnic groups where they grow corn, beans and squash together in small spaces, organically and without using pesticides.

And although it is true that permaculture was developed by white people like Bill Mollison and David Holmgren. Bill Mollison investigated ways of growing plant foods in the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent, Asia and Africa, and uniting ways of growing these indigenous ethnic groups in the three continents was what developed permaculture.

Before the arrival of European colonizers to this continent: insects, rodents, rabbits, birds and other animals were never a problem for indigenous crops, because on the continent there were many forests and jungles that offered sources of food for those animals, and the indigenous people had no problems with those animals eating a small part of the crops because this rarely happened when they had enough food in forests and jungles.

But, when the European colonizers arrived, and began to destroy most of the forests and destroy most of the jungles, those animals such as insects, rodents, rabbits, birds and others became a problem for the forms of industrial cultivation practiced by Europeans.

As the indigenous ethnic groups grew a wide variety of plant foods in the same area of land, biodiversity was favored and as the indigenous ethnic groups practiced crop rotation, they helped the soil recover its nutrients and become fertile again.

But, the monocultures that the Europeans developed and that always grow the same thing in the same place causes the soil to lose nutrients and over the years it becomes a desert, making it impossible to cultivate it again because it has become infertile.

In the indigenous people of the Iroquois ethnic group: the clans were led by women, women directed the crops and participated in political decisions, and there are other indigenous ethnic groups that were matriarchal. The indigenous people of the Bribri ethnic group are also matrilineal and the clan is transmitted through the mother. But, in these matriarchal ethnic groups, men also had an important role and were not belittled.

For this reason, these indigenous ethnic groups are not comparable to the feminism developed by Europeans where men are despised and nullified, just as in the machismo of the white ethnic groups of Europe such as the Romans, women were despised and nullified.

What governments and elites in power do with indigenous people is to scare them and provoke terror in them, and discredit them by making them believe that they are inferior, ugly or bad, in order to be able to dominate and subdue them, and even make them hate themselves and develop a masochistic relationship with their sadistic oppressors.

Always remember this indigenous character dressed as a cowboy who serves the white settlers:

Images recovered from the Internet

When neo-Nazis, Zionists, Hispanists, and advocates of other forms of colonization mention that Europeans had indigenous allies who helped them colonize the continent, is a way of telling the indigenous people of the present that they should do the same to be allies of those who hate them.

This is what the indigenous people who are in favor of Jair Bolsonaro do:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

For example, the following indigenous traitor who was a soldier and belongs to Jair Bolsonaro's political party named Sílvia Waiãpi to humiliate and denigrate the indigenous people told the lie that the indigenous people relieve themselves in the water of the rivers:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Sílvia Waiãpi uses this lie to agree with presidents and soldiers who belonged to Freemasonry and Christian religions such as the Freemason and Catholic Domingo Faustino Sarmiento of Argentina who affirmed that indigenous people are disgusting beings:

Here you can see the lie of conservatives who invent conspiracy theories when they claim that the church and Freemasonry are enemies or that Christianity and Freemasonry are enemies.

When in reality, Freemasonry is the same as the church and Christianity, and it would not be surprising if these conservatives who invent conspiracy theories, in addition to being Christians, are also Freemasons used to misinform.

Domingo Faustino Sarmiento said: - Will we be able to exterminate the Indians? For the savages of America I feel an invincible disgust without being able to remedy it. Those scoundrels are nothing more than some disgusting Indians. Incapable of progress, their extermination is providential and useful, sublime and great.

When neo-Nazis, Zionists, Hispanists and defenders of other forms of colonization refer to the indigenous people as savages, they affirm that the indigenous people are uncivilized and that they did not provide contributions, they speak of the colonizers as if they were brave heroes, and Hispanic channels such as EL VIEJO DE HISTORIA (Pura historia de Chile) and RATAS NEGRAS pay tribute to Inés Suárez who caused the murder of indigenous chiefs:

Screenshots recovered from YouTube

They are ways that these monsters have of humiliating the indigenous people and making the indigenous people feel inferior (although the indigenous people never respond to them), and ways of telling the indigenous people that the best thing is for them to submit, to allow themselves to be dominated, to forgive, turn the other cheek and have love for their enemies who hate them.

Also, when channels like Indiomamon claim that pre-Hispanic indigenous people lacked good hygiene, that they were dirty, that Latinos with European features have beauty and that indigenous people are ugly, and that indigenous men have small genital organs, these are ways that these monsters They have to promote hatred of indigenous people.

But, even so, many of these Hispanistas (defenders of Spanish colonization) and defenders of other forms of European colonization sometimes have the cowardice of denying that they hate the indigenous people, and softening colonization by saying that it improved the lives of the indigenous people, when only the lives of Creoles, mestizos and Europeans improved (not the lives of indigenous people).

Also, it is very suspicious that video platforms like YouTube and social networks like Facebook, Twitter and Instagram allow the promotion of hatred against indigenous people, but, when it comes to hateful comments towards people who are not indigenous, YouTube and social networks if they delete the comments and if they delete the accounts that make them.

This is an excerpt from a Survival International text that I think is important to rescue and share: Since the beginning of the colonial era, terms such as primitive or Stone Age have been used to describe indigenous peoples as societies frozen in a past time and therefore backward. This idea is as erroneous as it is dangerous: erroneous because these peoples, like everyone else, change and adapt, and dangerous because it is frequently used to justify the theft of land or the forced development of indigenous peoples. The results are almost always catastrophic: poverty, alcoholism, sexual exploitation, illness and death.

Continuing with the excerpt from the text of Survival International: Examples of racist violence are found in its most obvious forms, such as in the attacks by gold seekers against the Yanomami people, or by armed park rangers by conservation organizations against the Baka people, but also in forms more invisible to our eyes: like when the media talks about virgin nature to refer to lands that have been inhabited and cared for by indigenous peoples for generations, or like when colonialism is celebrated in Spain in every October 12.

In Brazil, in Lula's pacifist government: the Yanomami continue to suffer invasion of territory by illegal miners.

The sources of the following information are Survival International:

The invasion of illegal gold miners into Yanomami territory intensified during Bolsonaro's term. The situation remains serious despite the operation launched by Lula's government to expel them in January 2023.

The miners worked even at night to avoid being discovered and expelled. Now, the miners invade the territory again. They are so sure that they will not be punished, that they even publish about their activities on social networks.

And the violence continues in a video where you can see how the miners tie three Yanomami children to some trees. Miners attack frequently: in April, three Yanomami were shot and two died. Indigenous adults and children are dying from malaria and malnutrition.

Screenshots recovered from video released by Survival International.

What the indigenous ethnic groups continue to suffer in all the countries of this continent, and also what the indigenous ethnic groups of Asia and Africa continue to suffer at the present, and the silence, indifference and apathy of the majority that is not indigenous: have no forgiveness.

I would sentence those miners to the death penalty, but a slow death penalty so that they suffer what they have made the indigenous people suffer.

The Baka, who are an indigenous ethnic group in Africa, continue to suffer expulsion from their territories and all kinds of crimes. In a video released by Survival International, Baka indigenous people are seen on the side of a road suffering needs, while paths loaded with wood pass by.

The sources of the following information are Survival International:

These Baka indigenous people have been expelled from their lands in the name of nature conservation. Their home is now a national park. But within the park and in the area surrounding it there are: luxury hotels, two mining concessions and logging concessions.

A new Daily Mail investigation reveals horrific abuses against Bakas, including torture and rape. Prince Harry is on the board of African Parks, the organization whose park rangers are committing the abuses.

Screenshots of video released by Survival International.

The following is a testimony from Eyaya Nivrel who is an indigenous man of the Baka ethnic group: -The jungle is our home, it is where we live. They are destroying this jungle and forcing the Baka to leave. We are no longer allowed to live in the jungle. The park rangers prevent us from entering the jungle. But how are we going to eat? How are our children going to eat? I'd like whoever is sending these people here to hear what it's like.

Continuing with the testimony of Eyaya Nivrel disclosed by Survival International: -I want the person who is in charge of the park rangers and gives them orders to hear this. For us Bakas, the jungle is our home. If we leave the jungle, where will they send us to live? Somewhere in Europe? Where will we go? In what country will we live? They should leave us Bakas alone living in the jungle.

Eyaya Nivrel: -If they want to put us in jail, let them come and arrest us, or even come and kill me. The jungle is ours, but now others control it. Now there is only torture in the jungle. If today a Baka enters the jungle and encounters park rangers, they will torture him to death. They say: you can't enter here. They took everything to the Odzala Kokoua park and now we are in this situation. For us, entering the jungle is a problem. Even going to the jungle for bananas is a problem. The park rangers say that the Baka destroy the jungle, but it is not true. We, the Bakas, enter the jungle to get the things we need.

The following information was released by Survival International:

Uncontacted Hongana Manyawa indigenous people in Indonesia watch as their forest is destroyed to make way for nickel mining. The nickel will be used for the production of batteries for electric cars. We have to prevent it. They know that they will not survive if they destroy their jungle. Support their fight.

For all the crimes, injustices and atrocities that the indigenous ethnic groups of all the countries of this continent Abya Yala (to which the colonizers gave the name America), the indigenous ethnic groups of Africa and the indigenous ethnic groups of Asia continue to suffer in the present: If I had the power I would make the elites in power, the governments, these businessmen, and the majority of humanity who are not indigenous who are equally complicit and guilty for their silence, apathy and indifference, and for treating the indigenous people. of criminals, savages and terrorists when they defend themselves or take revenge, I would make them suffer three times as much as they have made the indigenous people suffer so that they suffer all the damage that they have done to the indigenous people.

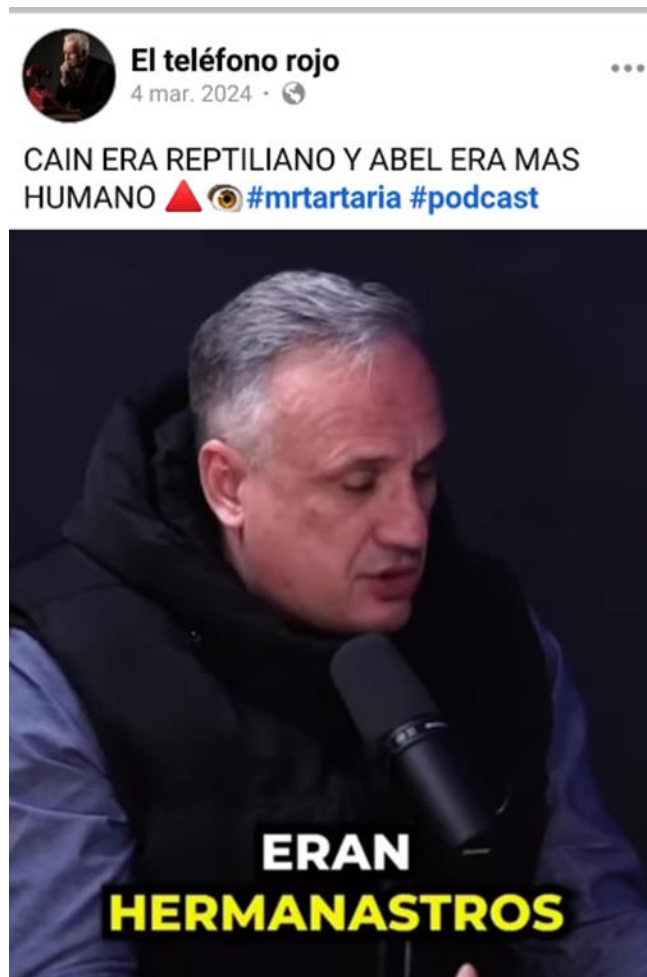

In the Bible, this fictional character invented by the nefarious Jews (who are a religion and not a race) of the Jewish god rejects the vegetable offerings that Cain offered him and only accepts the sacrifice of lambs that Abel offered him.

When the character of Abel sacrifices lambs that are peaceful and herbivorous animals, this represents the destruction of the innocent, and that is what pleases the Jewish god who is in the image and likeness of the majority of humanity.

But, since Christianity teaches humanity to see non-human animals as simple things or objects, the majority of stupid humanity considers that the fictional character of Cain was evil and that the fictional character of Abel was good.

Proof that this New Age clowning is the same as Christianity is that these clowns have come to say that Cain was a reptilian, just as they have said that the indigenous god Quetzalcoatl was a reptilian, as they do in the following capture from a video circulating on Facebook:

Screenshot recovered from Facebook

Something very dangerous about this video and that is 100% racist is that this old man claims that there are humans who descend from Cain who have reptilian genetics and humans who descend from Abel who have more human genetics.

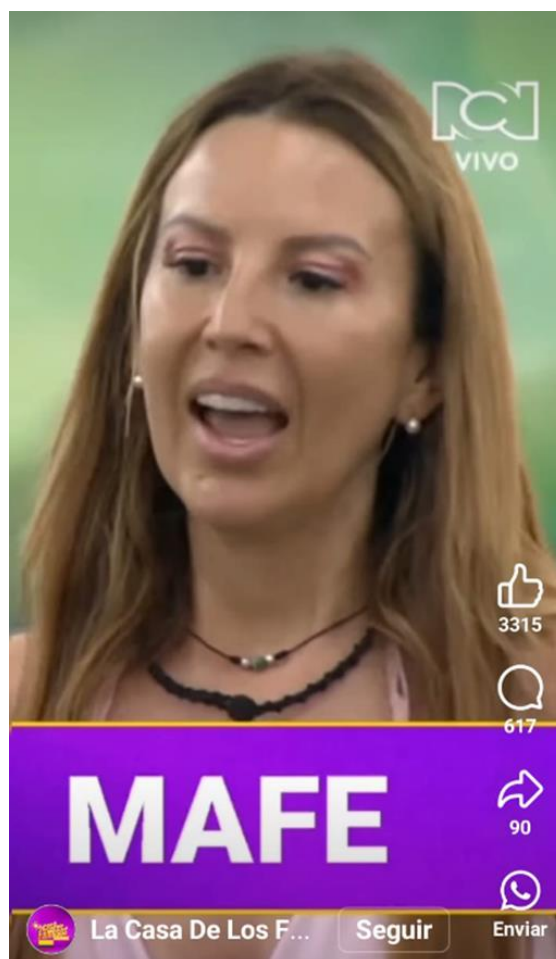

The New Age by inventing tall, white extraterrestrials, with light eyes and blonde hair like the Pleiadians and Venusians, and affirming that they are the good ones, and inventing gray extraterrestrials and reptilian extraterrestrials, and affirming that they are the bad ones, proves to be 100% racist.

I don't understand how the majority of ignorant humanity doesn't realize that New Age and conspiracy theories invented by conservatives are exactly the same as Christianity.

I am quite ashamed of having been New Age (New Age) in my past, but at the same time I believe that knowing the New Age inside and its different sects is what allows me to be able to denounce them in the present.

The Mormons or Church of Jesus Christ of the last days that originated in the United States, are totally linked to Freemasonry and are a Christian religion, daughter of the Catholic, just like the Evangelical, Pentecostal, Jehovah's Witnesses, Adventists and others: they affirm in their some of his writings that the indigenous people are Laminites who descend from Cain, and that for this reason, the fictional Judeo-Christian god cursed them with having reddish skin, black hair, and suffering extermination and hatred.

And speaking of this nonsense that is the New Age: the Colombian Mafe Walker who claims to speak an extraterrestrial language participates in a Colombian trash program called La Casa De Los Famosos.

Many rightly write that it seems like a total joke, mocking emojis and that television is increasingly dedicated to promoting stupidity. But, many others write that Mafe seems like a sweet and tender woman, and that the important thing is her hippie message that everything has to be love 🤪🥰.

When someone has love and peace with those who harm the innocent, they are being complicit with those who harm the innocent, and, therefore, just as guilty. Warrior energy is important to fight against tyrants, to fight against those who harm the weakest, to fight against those who harm the most vulnerable and to fight against those who harm the innocent.

And yes, on the one hand, the New Age (New Age) in a hippie way says that everything has to be unconditional love and peace in an absolutist way, without balance.

On the other hand, this same New Age always blames the victims of injustice for what happens to them, stating that they are paying karma from past lives, that they attracted it with their mind through the law of attraction, and that it They chose before incarnating through soul-to-soul agreements with those who harm them.

The same Freemasonry that inspired the motto equality, liberty and fraternity of the French Revolution is the same Freemasonry that celebrates Freemason presidents and Freemason military officers such as Domingo Faustino Sarmiento, John Milton Chivington and Andrew Jackson who promoted visceral hatred of indigenous people, who They expelled most indigenous people from their territories so that non-indigenous people would have economic freedom and freedom to harm indigenous people, and they caused massacres of indigenous people.

And the reason why the politically correct left seems just as disastrous to me as the right and the neoliberals or libertarians, and I will never be politically correct, is because when I look at photographs of Freemasons, I can perceive that if there is evil which comes from genetics:

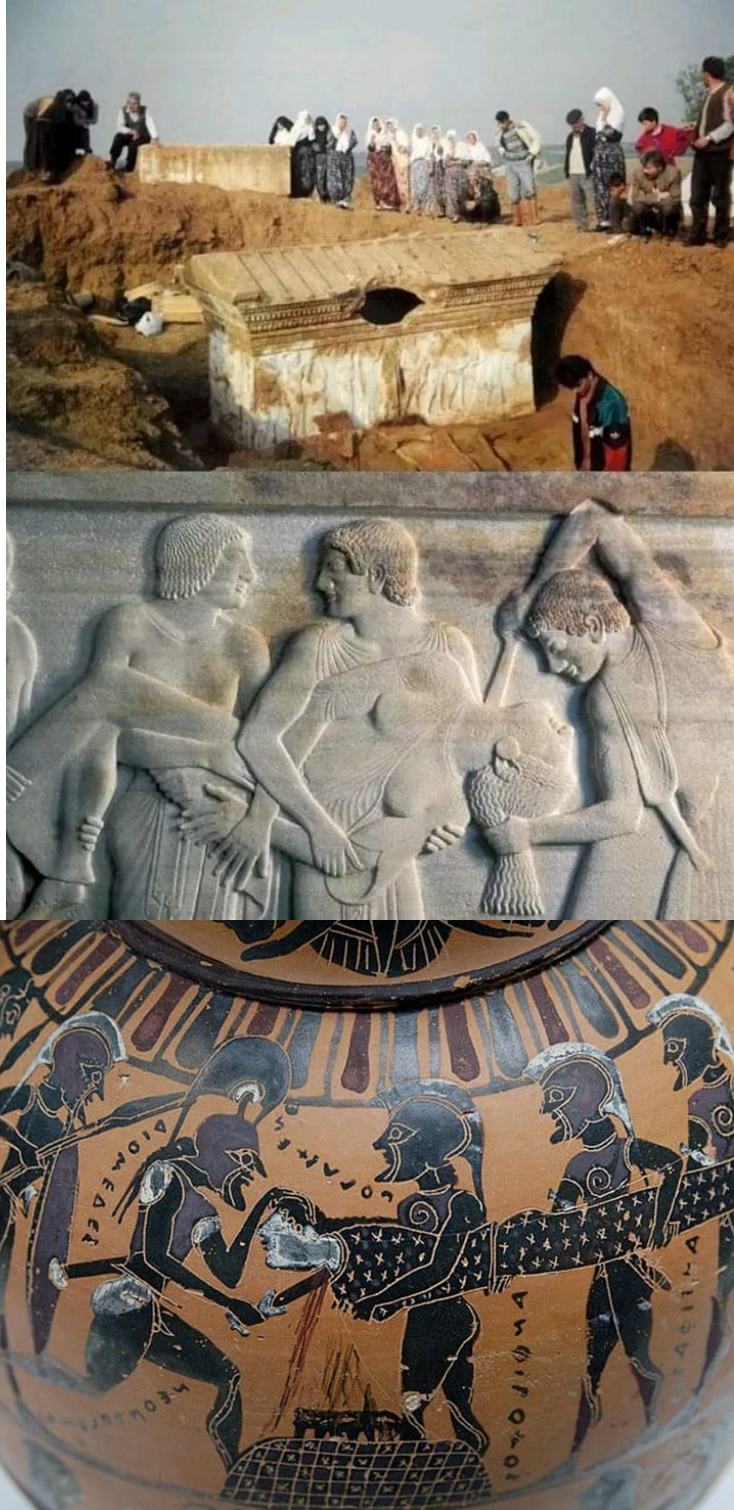

Photographs recovered from the Internet.

In those previous photos, Catholic priests appear supporting Freemasonry, and Jair Bolsonaro and his son Flávio Bolsonaro who are from the evangelical Christian religion supporting Freemasonry, then possibly: the majority of conservatives who invent conspiracy theories where they claim that Freemasonry is enemy of the Catholic Church or that Freemasonry is an enemy of Christianity, whether they are Freemasons who seek to misinform.

An example of how all human races in their beginnings made human sacrifices, and white ethnic groups also did them in their beginnings, is the Greek story of Polyxena who was sacrificed by Neoptolemus, although the story is supposed to be a myth, it is known that white ethnic groups such as the Greeks did make human sacrifices in their beginnings, and that the Celts, Vikings and Romans in their beginnings made these human sacrifices:

Conservatives and defenders of Christian religions say that crimes committed by Christian religions are black legends, and that Christian Europeans brought civilization and progress to this continent (meaning by civilization and progress to pollute and destroy the environment in exchange for money and Western technology).

But, the same minutes of the inquisition and books written by inquisitors such as El Martillo De Las Brujas, are evidence that Christianity did commit all those crimes and that they are not black legends.

It is incredible when these conservative Christians of the present deny that what other Christians wrote in the past is true, it is the same as when they deny what the European colonizers themselves accepted in their letters and books.

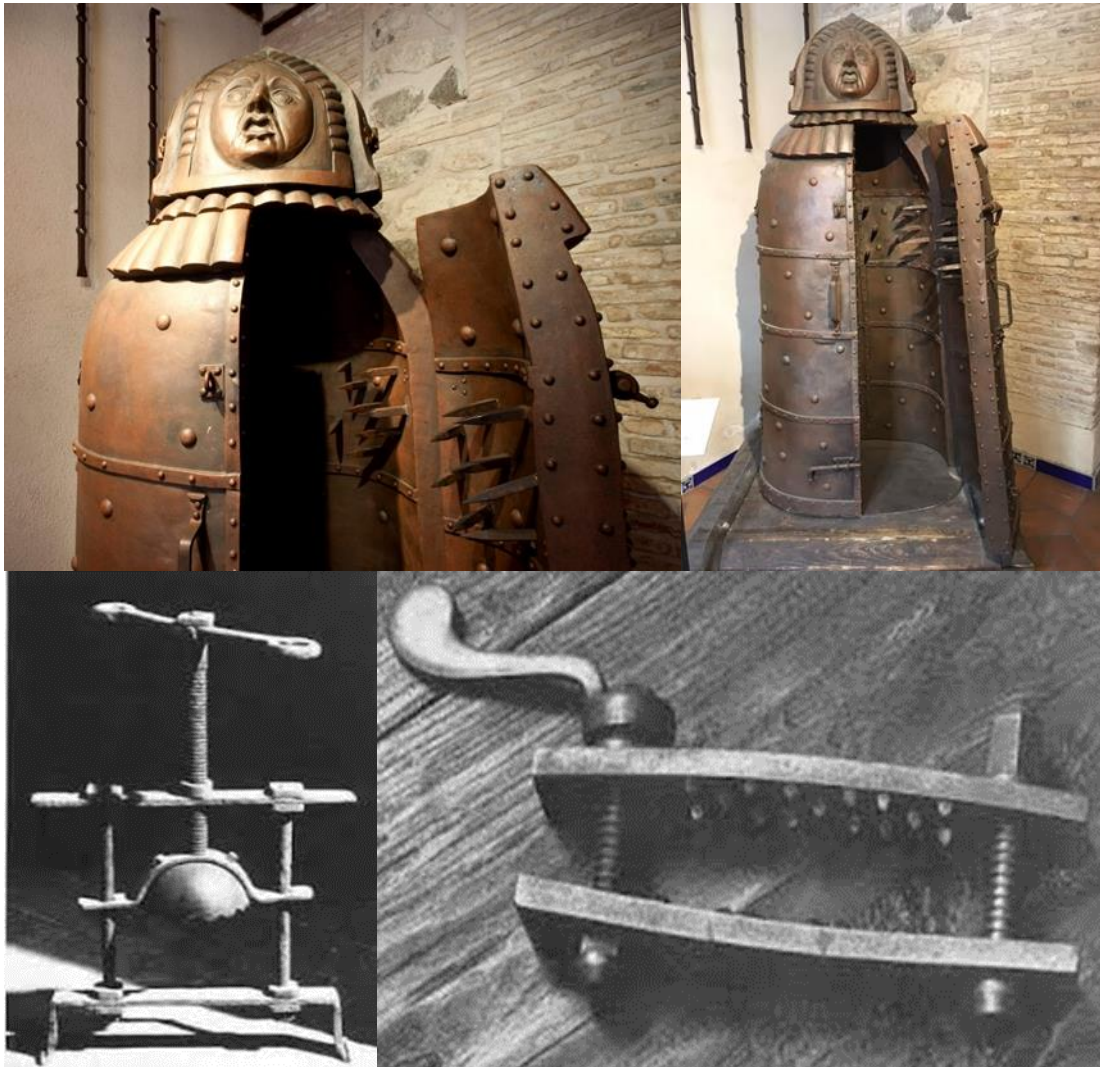

Photographs recovered from the Internet

A human sacrifice is any killing in the name of a god. And that was what the inquisition did, torturing and murdering other people in the name of the Judeo-Christian god. So these defenders of Christianity should not be clowns and should accept that Christian Europeans made human sacrifices.

Some instruments of torture used by the inquisition were: the iron maiden, the head crusher, the thumb crusher, the breast ripper, the pear and the Judas cradle.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Anyone who had been tortured with these torture instruments for a long time would have confessed whatever the inquisitors wanted him to confess so that they would kill him once and for all and not continue torturing him.

Remember that the Christian inquisitors tortured the victims, and if the victims said that they had not committed the things for which they were accused, the inquisitors continued to torture them until they confessed that they had committed the things for which they were accused. But, the defenders of European Christianity always take these accusations as real, when they were only insults and defamations.

And it was not only the inquisitors of the past in Europe during the Middle Ages who had the civilized and superior custom of lying, defaming, slandering and insulting. The nefarious religious fanatics of Christian religions today like the conservatives who invent conspiracy theories have the same civilized and superior habit of lying, defaming, slandering and insulting. And I write civilized and superior custom in the sense of sarcasm.

Simply put, if I had the power to do it, I would end this problem with the death penalty, no pacifism and no dialogue with these criminals.

But, even with all this, these defenders of Christianity and the Western have the cowardice to say that Christian Europeans were kind and civilized beings, or to minimize all this by saying that the victims were few, as the atheist Dalas Review did.

When whether the victims were few or many is irrelevant, in addition to the fact that those same garbage are the ones who complain that feminism minimizes the men who are victims of violence because they are few when they do exactly the same thing when it suits them.

Therefore, this image that they published from the Dalas Review in the incyclopedia with the text: - Who is this? A parasite, but for the pambis (followers of Dalas) he is everything.

They are absolutely right to refer to the parasitic atheist who calls himself Dalas Review (whose real name is Daniel Santomé Lemus) that way.

All this is what elites and governments do that want the replacement and extermination of all indigenous people, and call civilization, progress and development the destruction and pollution of the environment in exchange for Western money and technology.

The Jewish plan was always to lead the world to complete destruction, the Jews (who must always be repeated that they are a religion and not a race because the world is full of idiots from both the political right and the political left), and they reflect their plan to destroy the world when they invent the character of the Judeo-Christian god who says that he gave the world to the colonizers and then caused its destruction:

Deuteronomy chapter 28, verse 63: And it will come to pass, that just as the Lord took delight in you to prosper you and multiply you, so the Lord will take delight in you to cause you to perish and destroy you; and you will be uprooted from the land into which you are entering to possess it.

Of course, as always, the fanatics are going to say that this part that does not suit them is metaphor, symbolic or taken out of context as they do with all the parts of the Torah, the Tanakh and the Bible that do not suit them. Judaism created prophecies that later believers in this god invented by the Jews took it upon themselves to fulfill.

It is unfortunate that the majority of indigenous people have their minds colonized with Christian religions or with the New Age, because everything that European colonizers who were of Christian religions did to the indigenous people was a direct order from that god invented by the Jews, but many indigenous people are not aware that the belief in that god was brought by the Europeans:

Deuteronomy chapter 20, verse 16: But of the cities of these people that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, you will not leave a single person alive.

The European colonizers who were of Christian religions and their descendants (creoles and mestizos on this continent) are simply fulfilling the word of their Judeo-Christian god invented by the Jews, and even though the majority of indigenous people at present are of Christian religions or of the New Age will never consider them as equals and will always see them as inferior.

For example, in the United States it was of no use to many indigenous ethnic groups to convert to Christian religions and adopt pacifism, because the United States government always caused the extermination of the majority. And in Brazil, Christian missionaries were going to evangelize and pacify the indigenous people, and then as they were left defenseless, other Christians were going to invade and murder the majority of indigenous people.

Colonization is a complete brainwashing because because of Christian religions, many indigenous people believe that belief in the Judeo-Christian god was always present on the continent. And because of the New Age, many indigenous people believe that their creator god is the same as the Judeo-Christian god.

I compare this to a parasite that takes over the minds of the majority of indigenous people so that they serve their enemies without knowing it.

Those who hate the indigenous people claim that the indigenous people themselves hated each other because there were wars between different indigenous ethnic groups. But, the Judeo-Christian god of those who hate the indigenous people, says in his word that he will cause his own servants to kill each other:

Exodus chapter 32, verses 27, 28 and 29: Then Moses said: The Lord, the God of Israel, commands this: Let everyone put on his sword and go around the entire camp from one end to the other, and kill whoever stands in front of him, be it brother, friend or neighbor. The Levites did as Moses commanded and that day they killed about three thousand Israelites. Then Moses said: Today you have received full authority from the Lord; He has blessed them this day, because they turned against their own children and brothers.

For the world to really change, the belief in the Jewish god and in his Christian son Jesus Christ who defends those who harm innocent people with those teachings of not judging, loving one's enemies, forgiving everything and everything, would have to be completely prohibited and eliminated.

I once remember a Nicaraguan mestizo who treated some indigenous people like criminals for stoning the house of an invading woman, who said that indigenous people don't contribute anything, that they are lazy and drunk, and who said that mestizos have indigenous genetics as if it were matter, when in reality it doesn't matter a shit that mestizos have part of their indigenous genetics because most of them are like Europeans in their way of being, way of thinking, tastes and vision of the world.

The majority of stupid humanity says that indigenous people do not deserve respect because they are not perfect, as if the majority of humanity that is not indigenous were perfect, that's why when someone who is not indigenous gets drunk nobody cares, but when it is an indigenous person who gets drunk, they use that to promote hatred of indigenous people.

But, the Judeo-Christian god that most non-indigenous people believe in says that he caused his believers to drink until they were drunk and the fictional character of Jesus Christ turned water into wine:

Jeremiah chapter 51, verse 39: When they are in full ardor, I will provide them with drinks, I will make them drunk so that when the euphoria comes, they will sleep an eternal sleep and not wake up—oracle of the Lord.

John chapter 2, verses 8 and 9: And Jesus said to them, Now take out some and take it to the person in charge of the party. So they did it. The person in charge of the party tasted the water turned into wine, without knowing where it had come from.

There are parts of the Bible where the Jews recognize that the fictional character of their god YHVH or YeHoVaH is the same fictional character of the devil or satan invented by themselves:

2 Samuel chapter 24, verse 1: The anger of the Lord was kindled again against Israel, and he incited David against them to say, Go, take a census of Israel and Judah.

1 Chronicles chapter 21, verse 1: But Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

This cynicism of the Jews to recognize that their god YHVH or YeHoVaH represents the same fictional character as the devil or Satan, is the same as the Masonic duality of the black and white checkered floor, and the red apron and the blue apron, which represent false opposed to the service of the same lord:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

This is the reason why Christian religions promoted social Darwinism in the inquisition and colonization, and satanic religions at the service of the political right and the United States government such as The Church of Satan founded by Anton LaVey, The Temple of Seth founded by Michael Aquino and the ONA (Order of Nine Angles) promote social Darwinism. False opposites in the service of the same lord, two sides of the same coin.

But, there are people on the Left who are still determined to make people believe that atheism, Satanism and neo-paganism of white ethnic groups such as Wicca are the opposite of Christianity.

There are parts of the Bible, where the prophets of this god invented by the Jews, recognize that this god that the stupid majority considers the true and perfect, is a fictitious god who is a liar:

Jeremiah chapter 4, verse 10: And I said, Alas, alas, Jehovah God! Truly you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying: You will have peace; for the sword has come to the soul.

2 Thessalonians chapter 2, verse 11: Therefore God sends them a deceptive power, so that they believe a lie.

When the Jews invented the Torah (first five gospels of the Old Testament) which Christians call the Pentateuch and the Tanakh (the other gospels of the Old Testament), an Old Testament in which the Christian and Muslim or Islamic religions also believe: they were quite cynical in some parts when they recognize that their god represents deception.

But, the cynicism of Jews and Christians has no limits, when they recognize that the fictional character of the Judeo-Christian god represents exactly the same as the fictional character of the devil or satan:

John chapter 8, verse 44: Your father is the devil; You belong to him, and you try to do what he wants. The devil has been a murderer from the beginning. He doesn't stand by the truth, and he never tells the truth. When he tells lies, he speaks as what he is; because he is a liar and is the father of lies.

Many stupid people may say that Freemasonry and the Abrahamic religions (Jewish, Christian and Islamic) with these false opposites and contradictions maintain a balance.

What balance if they are contaminating and destroying the entire planet?

What balance if they contaminate and destroy ecosystems, and ecosystems where there is a real balance between life and death?

What balance if 95% of the world's population is made up of non-indigenous humans and only 5% of the world's population are indigenous?

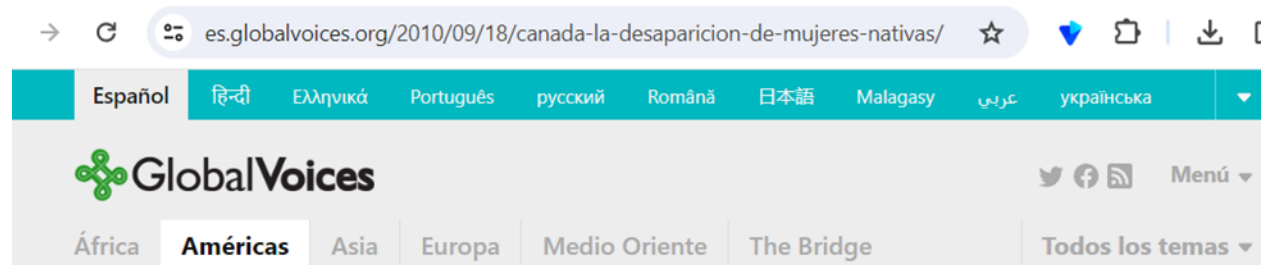

No balance.

The indigenous ethnic groups did make a real balance between life and death, and were part of the different ecosystems. But, governments and elites want to replace all indigenous people with humans who are not indigenous, and with non-indigenous humans who only know how to pollute and destroy the planet, without a balance.

What the Right and the Neoliberals or Libertarians do to promote hate speech against indigenous people, to favor those who invade indigenous territories, to send damned police and damned soldiers to expel indigenous people from their territories and to attack or even murder indigenous people, and Treating the few indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as savages, criminals or terrorists is not balanced, because indigenous people are only 5% of the world's population.

And what the left does is to keep the indigenous people in conformity, dominated and subjugated with Christian religions, pacifism and the ideology of equality so that they do not defend themselves, so that they do not take revenge, so that they have love for their enemies and so that they allow to hurt them, to give crumbs to the indigenous people, to make people believe that indigenous people and mestizo people are the same, and to always place those who are not indigenous as a priority above the indigenous people, is not balance, because the indigenous people are only the 5% of the world population.

Conservatives who invent conspiracy theories make it believe that the majority of human trafficking victims are non-Indigenous people. In reality, the majority of human trafficking victims are indigenous people, because this damn society sees the lives of indigenous people as disposable and makes indigenous people invisible.

And the entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons have promoted hatred of indigenous people for decades.

Why are these elites and governments focused on causing and allowing the disappearance of indigenous women, and the damn media like television remain silent about it?

Because these damn people know that if many indigenous women disappear, there will be fewer indigenous people in the world.

And since governments and elites are abominable beings, it may be that they carry out many atrocities in secret and what is known about them is only a small part.

When the Australian Peter Scully traveled to the Philippines where he made videos for the Deep Web like Daisy's Destruction where girls were tortured, abused, raped and murdered, and then he was arrested, he never said who the millionaires were who financed and bought those videos in the United States and Europe.

It must also be remembered that the Vatican has always covered up priests who abuse or rape children, and that governments and elites interact with the Vatican and pay visits to the Vatican.

And although these governments and elites pretend to be 100% Christian, in reality, they are New Age, they use Christianity to encourage and promote hatred of minorities in public, but, Freemasonry is actually a mixture of Judeo-Christian beliefs with Greek, Persian and Egyptian beliefs, the founders of Celtic paganisms such as Druidism and Viking paganisms such as Odinism were Freemasons, and there is much evidence that the Vatican promotes the New Age.

It is possible that issues such as human sacrifices and cannibalism that these governments and elites condemn in public and use to promote hatred of minorities, they themselves practice human sacrifices and cannibalism in secret, the massacres of indigenous people are human sacrifices and the Baka in Africa have been victims of cannibalism.

The entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons invent monsters that murder and torture non-indigenous humans in scenes of extreme gore, but in reality, these monsters reflect many who are not indigenous. Part of cynicism is inventing monsters that represent what they themselves are.

Also, on many occasions the Vatican and the United States government have promoted the New Age belief in extraterrestrials that visit us, and they may even use holograms, airplanes with those shapes and drones with those shapes for that, because They know that the majority cares more about knowing if there is life on other planets and they do not care about taking care of life on this planet Earth. And the entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons have done their part in this.

They have said that in military bases like Area 51 they hide extraterrestrial beings and extraterrestrial technology, but, what if in reality in military bases like Area 51 they carry out many experiments, atrocities and crimes that they keep secret, and what they make believe that they hide to aliens is just a way to divert attention from what really happens on those military bases.

Peter Scully in his statements said that he had clients for his videos of torture and rape of girls in the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom, and that some of his clients paid up to $10 000 for those videos. Only powerful people and millionaires pay $10 000.

Photographs recovered from the Internet.

Even when he was arrested, Peter Scully smiles, these are monsters that should not exist. The gore scenes that are increasingly common in movies and series are ways of teaching the majority of the population to see extreme violence as something fun.

The following is the photo of the girl who was tortured, abused, raped and murdered in the Daisy's Destruction videos that were sold on the Deep Web:

Photograph recovered from the Internet

The monsters who did this to this girl, financed and paid for these videos, should have received the death penalty. But, they did not receive the death penalty because of those who defend the human rights of these criminals, and they only arrested Peter Scully and the women accomplices, but they did not arrest the millionaires from the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom who financed and bought those videos.

The millionaire monsters from the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom who financed and paid up to 10 thousand dollars for these videos are still free with impunity, so they possibly continue doing this, and even teaching their children and grandchildren to do this.

In 2015, a room guarded by police where there was material produced by Peter Scully caught fire, and to the question of why a room guarded by police catches fire so easily, the answer is because there are very powerful millionaire people who are involved.

The company that Peter Scully created on the Deep Web to sell these videos was called NLF (No limits fun) which can be translated as fun without limits, which shows how these monsters in power find it fun to abuse, torture, rape and murder innocents.

Screenshot recovered from the Internet

Other of Peter Scully's clients who bought these videos were millionaires from Brazil and Germany.

Peter Scully and the women who were his accomplices were looking for low-income families in the Philippines to offer them that if they gave them their underage daughters it would give them a better life, and they also offered street girls clothes, food and money to travel with them.

The following photograph is of the skeletal remains of one of the girls murdered by Peter Scully, and which were found by the Philippine police:

Luka Magnotta is another case of a white man who commits cannibalism just like other white people like Jeffrey Dahmer and Andrei Chikatilo who were serial killers who also committed cannibalism. And because of these cases of whites committing cannibalism, no one claims that all whites are cannibals, unlike what they do with indigenous people.

The Hispanistas (defenders of Spanish colonization), the defenders of Portuguese colonization, the defenders of English colonization, the defenders of French colonization and all those who promote hatred of indigenous people, have affirmed that all indigenous ethnic groups and all The indigenous people of each ethnic group practiced cannibalism.

The movies have made people believe the same thing because television and the entertainment industry such as cinema have been the biggest promoters of hatred of indigenous people. In the film Cannibal Holocaust the Yanomami are defamed by claiming that they practice cannibalism and the film contains a real scene where a turtle is killed.

In addition, after causing the murder of indigenous people of the Guarani-Kaiowa ethnic group by military police (PM), Jair Bolsonaro caused the death of 570 children of the Yanomami ethnic group who died from malnutrition and malaria because Jair Bolsonaro supported the illegal miners who They invaded their territories and allowed these miners to invade Yanomami territory, and during Lula's government these crimes against the Yanomami and against the Guarani-Kaiowa went unpunished.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

We must not forget that Donald Trump, Santiago Abascal of the VOX party of Spain, Javier Milei, Agustín Laje, Eduardo Verástegui and Carolina Rivera Añez (daughter of Jeanine Añez) are complicit and guilty of these murders of indigenous people that occur in the present by supporting to Jair Bolsonaro.

And that the conservatives who invent conspiracy theories where they make us believe that the majority of those who are not indigenous are innocent victims of the elites, who talk about the 2030 agenda and that Freemasonry wants to reduce the world population (when the only ones they want to exterminate it is the indigenous people and the indigenous people if they are victims of the elites), they are complicit and guilty of these murders of indigenous people for supporting criminals like Donald Trump, Javier Milei and Jair Bolsonaro.

Jair Bolsonaro repeats the lies of the film Cannibal Holocaust by stating in a video that the Yanomami practice cannibalism, saying that he observed an Indian being cooked in Surucucu (Yanomami territory), that he wanted to see the Indian being cooked, that he would eat meat of Indian without problems and who ate Indian.

In some places in the Congo, invaders of the forests where the Baka pygmies live have committed cannibalism against the Baka. Some guerrilla groups believe that eating Baka meat gives them strength before each battle.

And we must remember that the fictitious god invented by the Jews, whom the defenders of colonization and those who hate the indigenous people worship, in many parts of the Old Testament (Torah and Tanakh) it states that he will cause fathers and mothers to become cannibals so that they devour their own sons and daughters:

Leviticus chapter 26, verses 26, 27 and 28: If you still do not listen to me, but proceed against me in opposition, I will proceed against you in anger, and will punish you seven times for your sins. And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters.

Deuteronomy Chapter 28, verse 53: And you shall eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and your daughters, which the Lord your God gave you, in the place and in the trouble with which your enemy will distress you.

Jeremiah chapter 19, verse 9: And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and each one shall eat the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the hardship with which their enemies and those who seek their lives will surround them.

Actually, when the Jews invented this fictitious god, inspired by the Zoroastrianism of the Persians, they invented a monster, and a monster, tulpa (mental creation) or archetype that influences the collective consciousness (which the New Agers defend so much) of the majority, but the stupid majority does not reason and is foolish to continue with what their parents taught them as children.

The racist, occultist and possibly also related to Freemasonry named Howard Phillips Lovecraft, when inventing cruel and bloodthirsty gods like Cthulhu in his books like The Necronomicon, did not reach the same level as the Jews who invented this monstrous fictitious god.

Howard Phillips Lovecraft was an atheist, and his father Winfield Lovecraft belonged to the Memphis Misraim rite Freemasonry. According to the Bible, Ham was the son of Noah, and Mizraim was the son of Ham.

Genesis chapter 10, verse 6: The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.

According to the biography of Howard Phillips Lovecraft, he was a racist, xenophobic, he hated black people, despised indigenous people and despised oriental people, he believed that the white race was superior. Howard Phillips Lovecraft was a Nazi sympathizer. Howard Phillips Lovecraft described the bloodthirsty god Cthulhu who was invented as a being with octopus tentacles and bat wings.

On the maternal side, Howard Phillips Lovecraft's mother named Sarah Susan Phillips Lovecraft was the daughter of Whipple Van Buren Phillips who founded the Masonic Ionian Lodge number 28 in 1870. Howard Phillips Lovecraft married Sonia Greene who was a woman who came from a Jewish family.

Howard Phillips Lovecraft inventing cruel and bloodthirsty gods is similar to the Jews inventing the Judeo-Christian god.

Howard Phillips Lovecraft, also, promoted New Age beliefs by stating that the gods were extraterrestrials from other solar systems in his books.

Inspired by the writings of both Howard Phillips Lovecraft and Aleister Crowley: Kenneth Grant founded the sect known as the Typhonian Order or TOTO (Typhonian Ordo Templi Orientis or the Order of Typhonian Eastern Templars).

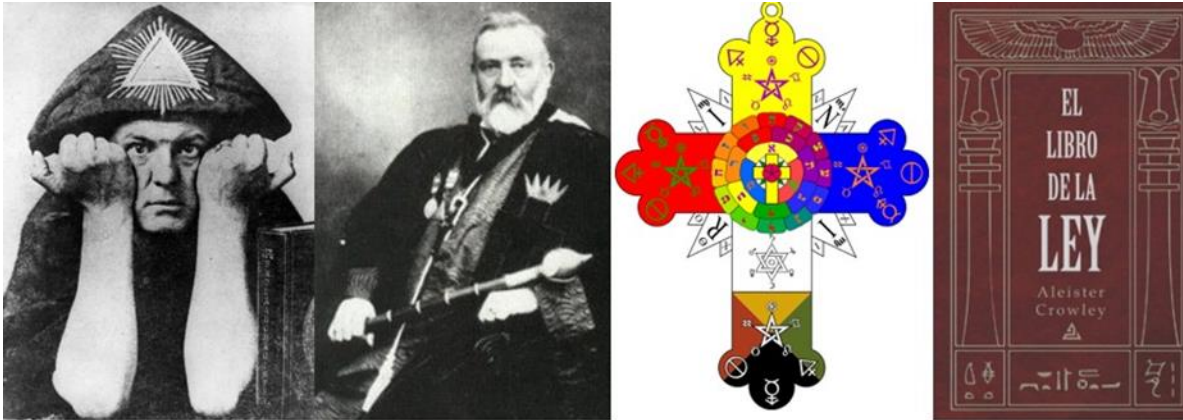

Images recovered from the Internet

Aleister Crowley belonged to the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn which was founded by William Wynn Westcott. William Wynn Westcott belonged to Freemasonry and was a scholar of Kabbalah (Jewish mysticism).

Aleister Crowley, wrote in The Book of the Law: 12. Sacrifice livestock, small and large; then a child.

Defenders of Aleister Crowley have claimed that this is a metaphor or symbolic, just as those who claim that the parts of the Bible that do not suit them are metaphors or symbolic.

As we already know, all these Masonic, Rosicrucian and occult lodges mix the Judeo-Christian with the Egyptian and the Greek. Jews and Christians have always copied everything, they don't have anything that is original.

For the concept of the Christian and Catholic Trinity they were inspired by the Egyptian triads. The following is a sculpture of the god Osiris, the goddess Isis and the child god Horus from the 7th/6th century BC found in the Hermitage Museum:

Photograph of Egyptian sculpture recovered from the Internet

The Christian religions represent most paintings and statues of angels, saints and virgins with European features, and the New Age represents the aliens they believe in as Ashtar Sheran and the ascended masters they believe in as Saint Germain with European features, and this is because they hate the physique of the indigenous people (reddish skin, black hair and almond-shaped or slanted eyes):

Images recovered from the Internet

But, although Jews and Christians are inspired by concepts from the Egyptians, and although the Masonic, Rosicrucian and occult lodges mix the Judeo-Christian with the Egyptian: it is known from the Egyptian art of the first Egyptian dynasties, that the Egyptians, before being invaded and colonized by the Persians, Greeks, Romans and Arabs, they were not white.

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

How did the Egyptians represent their gods in Egyptian art?

The goddess Isis was represented with light tan or yellowish skin and almond-shaped eyes, the god Horus with reddish skin and a falcon's head, and in some representations the god Osiris with black skin. But, the Egyptians in art never represented their gods with white skin, and representing Egyptian gods as white is only done by neopagans in the present.

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

Isis, whose Egyptian name is Aset, is the goddess who rules in heaven and is Queen on earth. Isis is a protective and nurturing goddess. She is the wife of the god Osiris whom he helped resurrect using his magic after he was killed by Seth and with whom he had a son named Horus.

This goddess also has powers associated with healing because on one occasion when Horus was stung by a scorpion, she managed to save his life using her magic. Also, she was worshiped as a lunar goddess and was associated with the star Sirius.

She is the goddess who caused the Nile to flood, which fertilized the land and made crops possible. She is the mother of nature, and therefore also a goddess of fertility and motherhood.

The goddess Aset (whom the Greeks and Romans renamed Isis) transformed into a bird, she flapped her wings rapidly, forcing air into the nostrils of Usir (whom the Greeks and Romans renamed Osiris) until he took a breath and was resurrected. The Bird that represents Aset is the swallow:

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

Two colors that predominate in the plumage of swallows are: black and white. This is quite reminiscent of the Ying-Yang (Taijitu) symbol of Taoism: the balance between light and darkness, man and woman, day and night, heat and cold, summer and winter, happiness and sadness, harmony and anger, activity and rest.

Images recovered from the Internet

After Horus was born, Isis fled with him to the swamps where papyrus grew and kept him hidden to protect him from Seth.

Horus was the god of the sky, son of Osiris and Isis. Horus fought Seth for the throne of Egypt after Seth murdered his father, Osiris.

Its attributes include power, protection, justice and victory.

The right eye of Horus represents the sun and is associated with solar energy, strength and protection. And the left eye of Horus represents the moon and is associated with healing, wisdom and intuition.

Osiris, whose Egyptian name is Usir, is the god of fertility, death and resurrection. When the waters of the Nile went down they represented the death of Osiris and when the waters of the Nile rose bringing the silt that makes the earth fertile it symbolized the resurrection of Osiris.

Osiris was also a god of agriculture who was represented with both black skin and green skin, both colors represent fertility, on the one hand, black is the color of silt or dark earth that brings fertility to crops and, on the other hand, green is the color of the vegetation that arises from the fertile land.

As the god of agriculture he represents death and resurrection, when the seed was buried it represents death and when the plant emerges from the seed it symbolizes the resurrection.

This representation of Egyptian gods as white is only done by those of the New Age and the neo-pagans of the present who emerged from the same Freemasonry and the Rosicrucians, and which are so abundant in the United States, Spain and Argentina. And it is the same thing they do with indigenous gods, such as the goddess Laka or the god Ekeko.

When the Greeks and Romans invaded and colonized Egypt, they syncretized the Greek goddess Aphrodite (Venus for the Romans) with the Egyptian goddess Isis, and they began to create representations of Isis as a white woman to eliminate the representation of Isis that existed before they colonized Egypt:

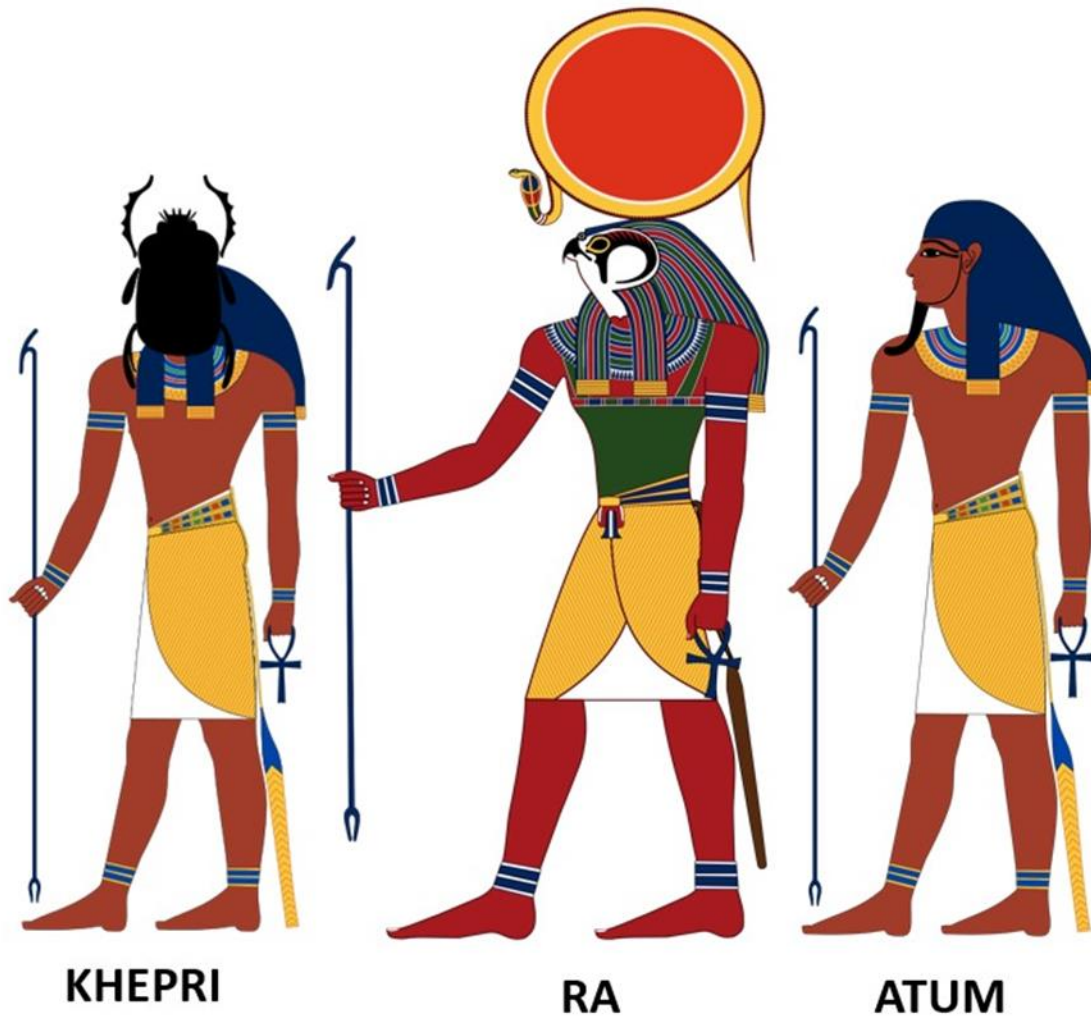

Photograph of Statue recovered from the Internet

Also many names given to Egyptian gods were given by the Greeks and Romans: Osiris is the Greek name and Usir is the Egyptian name, Isis is the Greek name and Aset is the Egyptian name, Horus is the Greek name and Hur-Hor is the Egyptian name, Thoth is the Greek name, and Yehuti is the Egyptian name.

When Christians invented the Catholic trinity, in addition to being inspired by Osiris, Isis and Horus, they were also inspired by Khepri, Ra and Atum.

Khepri (Egyptian name: Jeper) with the head of a scarab is the god of the sun at dawn. Falcon-headed Ra is the god of the sun at noon. And Atum with 100% human form (Egyptian name: Itemu) is the god of the sun at sunset.

Images recovered from the Internet

Khepri, whose Egyptian name is Jeper, is a god with the appearance of a dung beetle who symbolizes the sun rising over the horizon at dawn.

Khepri represents the resurrection of the sun at dawn, Ra the sun at noon and Atum the sun at sunset.

Khepri also symbolizes the transformation represented in the metamorphosis of the beetle where it goes from larva to pupa and from pupa to adult beetle.

Ra symbolizes the midday sun, his power encompasses the heavens, the earth and the lower world. This god acted as a divine father and protector of the King. Ra means sun and is the King of the heavens.

Ra is the creator of the world, of all living beings, and created humans through the tears of his eye.

Atum, whose Egyptian name is Itemu, represents the sun at sunset, the complete or finished creation, he is the lord of the whole and the creator god because he is an aspect of the god Ra himself.

Both Khepri, Ra and Atum are aspects of the same sun god. Atum is the King and father of the gods, he is the original creation and the primordial mound from which the waters of creation emerged.

The three sides of the triangles that form the pyramid represent the same thing: sun at dawn, sun at noon, and sun at sunset.

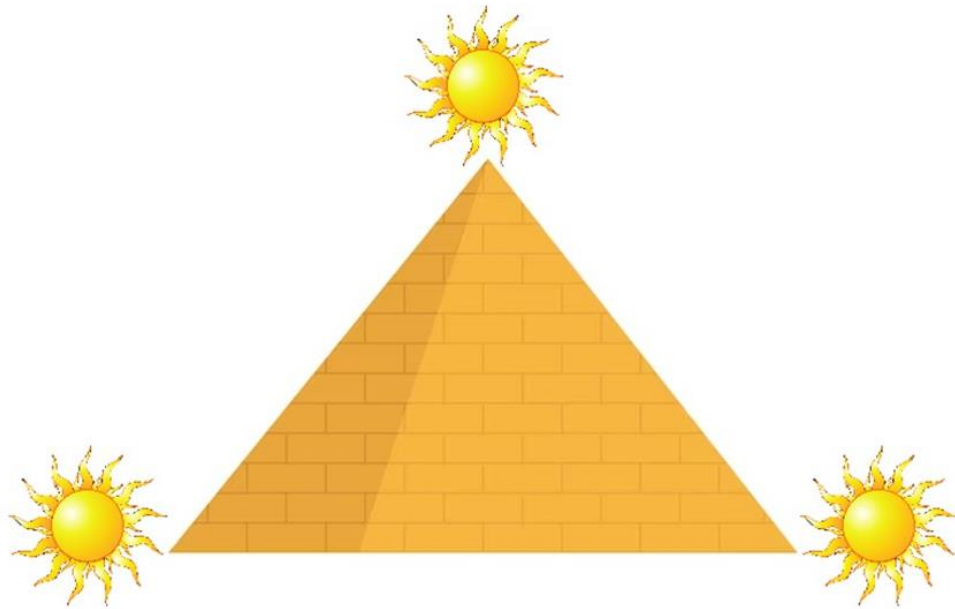

Image recovered from the Internet

Symbolic language that serves to describe in a poetic and artistic way the aspects of nature such as the sun: Judaism and Christianity plagiarize it and deform it so that it does not represent natural processes.

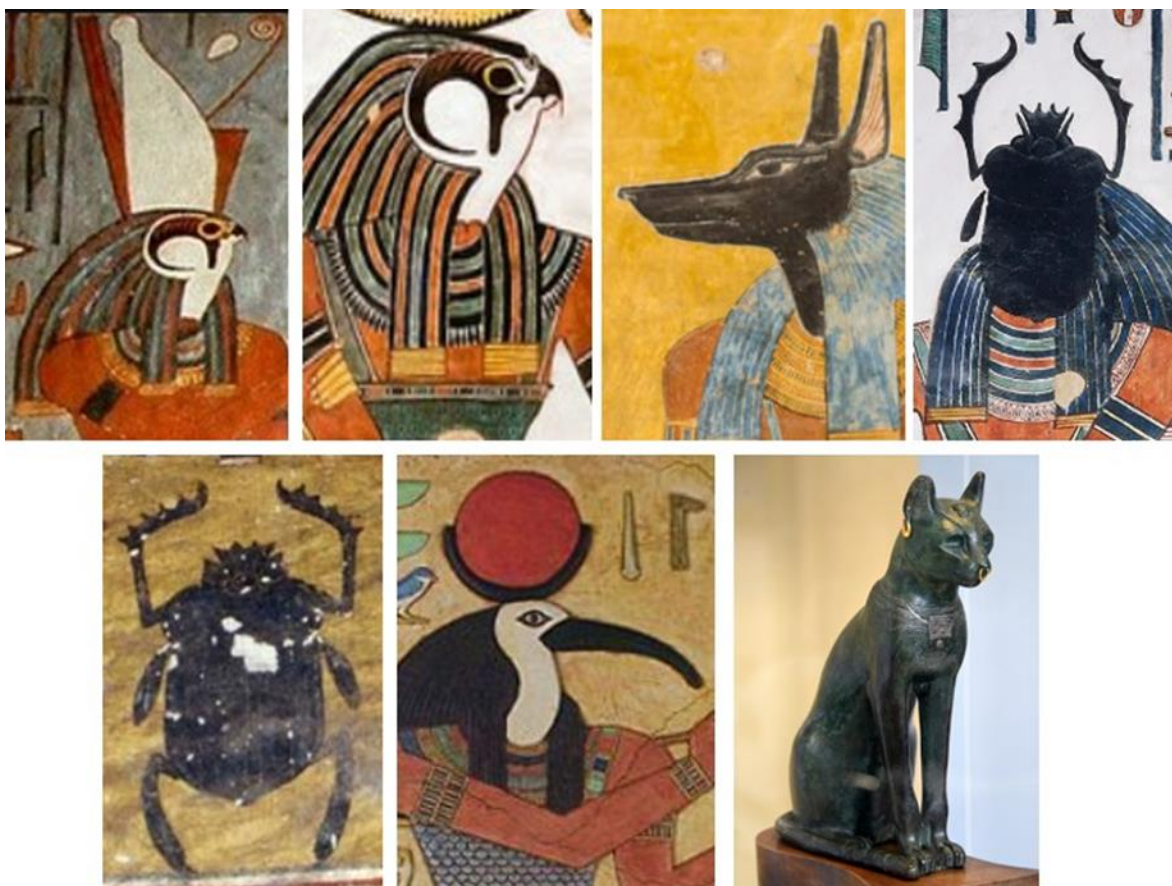

Always remember that, in indigenous ethnic groups, there are also sun gods: Taiowa in the Hopis, Guaraci in the Guaraníes and Apolaki in the Filipinos.

The Abrahamic religions (Jewish, Christian and Islamic) have always made the majority believe that the word animal means soulless, lacking dignity, immoral, an insult and inferior.

But, the Egyptians did not think that way because they represented many of their gods with animal heads or in the shape of animals such as: Ra and Horus (Egyptian name: Hur-Hor) with a falcon head, Anubis (Egyptian name: Anpu) with the head of a jackal, Khepri (Egyptian name: Jeperu) with the head of a scarab or with the 100% form of a scarab, Thoth (Egyptian name: Yehuti) with the head of an Ibis, and the goddess Bastet with the form of a black cat.

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

Thoth, whose Egyptian name is Yehuti, is a lunar god of wisdom, magic and writing.

Thoth acts as a messenger to the other gods. According to Egyptian accounts, the god Thoth had healed the eye of Horus which represents the moon, also taught the art and was known as the recognizer of years and the lord of time.

Thoth is considered the heart of Ra and the tongue of Ra. The god Thoth is also in charge of the law, of ordering the seasons and times, and of the power of the word.

Thoth personifies the mind, the sound and the creative word.

Bastet is a goddess represented as a cat or with a human body with a cat's head who is a goddess of motherhood, fertility and protection. Its appearance is due to the fact that cats are very protective animals of their babies.

It is associated with ointments and perfumes, and as a protective mother one of its aspects is revenge.

If the Egyptians had thought the same as the Abrahamic religions, they would never have represented many of their gods with animal heads and in animal forms.

This Egyptian gods with animal heads and animal shapes is very similar to the concepts of the indigenous ethnic groups of animals of power, of the Nahual (shaman who transformed into animals), and of the totem animal that represents the village and the clan.

Images recovered from the Internet

And just as in the indigenous ethnic groups there were elves who were spirits of nature such as Curupira, Duwende, Duhindu and Coquena.

Bes is an Egyptian god who protected children and the home, and a god of love and sexual pleasure, remember that, just as in indigenous ethnic groups, nudity and sexual pleasure were not something bad and were not something immoral, In the same way, for the ancient Egyptians, sexual pleasure and nudity were not something bad and they were not something immoral. Bes was represented as a dwarf:

Images recovered from the Internet

When the ancient Egyptians represented the goddess Maat (goddess of justice, balance and order) with an ostrich feather on her head, this is very reminiscent of indigenous ethnic groups that use feathers:

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

Maat personifies order and harmony in the universe. She is the daughter of Ra, the sun god, and was considered the wife of Thoth, the god of wisdom and writing.

Maat was commonly depicted with an ostrich feather on her head, symbolizing truth and balance. Maat represents the cosmic order.

The Pyramid of the Sun in Teotihuacán has a certain similarity to the Egyptian pyramids, there is much evidence that there was a certain connection between Egyptians and indigenous ethnic groups:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

When the Jews invented the Old Testament (Torah and Tanakh) they slandered the Egyptians to make them look like tyrants who used slaves to build and to this day the majority believe this. And the Christians defamed the indigenous people to make them feel like they were the worst.

The indigenous ethnic groups of what is now known as the United States, most of which were exterminated by the English colonizers, and then the majority were exterminated by the United States government with the help of Irish and Scottish settlers, these indigenous ethnic groups also built their houses (tipis) in triangular or pyramidal shape:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

On Egyptian tablets, Egyptian hieroglyphs appear in the shape of tipis (the houses built by the indigenous people of the United States):

Photographs recovered from the Internet

The New Age and those who invent conspiracy theories always claim that the pyramids, Machu Picchu and the Nazca lines were made by aliens because they consider that those who are not white, such as the ancient Egyptians and the indigenous ethnic groups, were uncivilized, savages and ignorant people who could not build those great works, and racism is also seen in the fact that they believe in extraterrestrial races like the reptilians and the grays that they claim are evil, and they always relate their belief in reptilians and grays with the Egyptians and with the indigenous ethnicities.

In fact, look at how they represent their belief in gray extraterrestrials, with almond eyes, which is the same shape of eyes that the Egyptians had and that the indigenous ethnic groups have, and when they say that the gray ones are small it is a way of saying that everything small or medium is bad:

Images recovered from the Internet

In the genesis of the Bible it is stated that the devil in the form of a snake deceived Eve, and in the apocalypse of the Bible it is stated that the dragon represents the devil or Satan, this was a way of denigrating Asian cultures that had the dragon as a symbol and to denigrate the Egyptians who had the cobra snake as a symbol of Ra.

Then those who hate the indigenous people also use these parts of the Bible to say that since the indigenous people had gods in the shape of a snake or dragon like Quetzalcóatl, Kukulcan and Amaru, it meant that they are children of the snake (the devil), descendants of Cain, that for this reason his god inspired the colonizers and gave them victory, and that his god cursed the indigenous people to suffer hatred, pain, domination, submission and extermination for all eternity.

When New Age and conspiracy theory conservatives invent alien races like reptilians and dragonians based on movies like Alien Invasion V, and claim that these fictional beings like reptilians and dragonians are evil, It is another way of agreeing with what was written by Jews and Christians:

Images recovered from the Internet

And when the New Age invents extraterrestrial races like the Pleiadians and the Venusians where they claim that they have white skin, blonde hair and blue eyes, and that those are the good ones, this further confirms the relationship of the New Age with racism, with neo-Nazism, with the political right and with neoliberals or libertarians:

Images recovered from the Internet

The neo-Nazis, the trash from the right-wing parties like VOX and the neoliberals or libertarians are anti-immigrant and say that Europe should be white and they venerate the European colonizers whom they consider heroes who dominated, subdued and defeated the indigenous people who for They represent savagery, sexual immorality defined with their Christian ideology, ignorance and everything reprehensible.

Also, neopagans of white ethnicities such as Odinism (Viking paganism) consider the Aryans who invaded and colonized India as heroes for defeating and dominating the Dravidians (indigenous population of India), and that we already know that all ethnic groups whites are of Indo-European or Eurasian origin, and they are related to the Aryans who came from Iran and were part of the Persian empire.

These neo-Nazis and right-wing parties like VOX are the most stupid thing that exists because the European colonizers were the causes of immigration, the European colonizers were the ones who brought black slaves and indigenous slaves to Europe, that is, those who brought immigrants to Europe.

If the Europeans had never invaded and colonized this continent, and had never invaded and colonized Africa: Europe would have remained white, Africa would have remained black and this continent would have remained indigenous, and this is the right thing, that the human races remain in their ecosystems, and not multiculturalism.

But, Right-wing garbage like VOX and neo-Nazis complain about things caused by the same colonizers they so venerate.

There are indigenous people who emigrate to Europe, because the descendants of the European colonizers (creoles and mestizos), and the governments formed by criollos and mestizos make their lives impossible on this continent.

If the European colonizers had never invaded this continent and the continent of Asia, no indigenous people would seek to emigrate to Europe. Therefore, immigration was something caused by the European colonizers themselves.

The majority of mestizos, even if they are brown mestizos, are equal to Europeans in their tastes, ways of being, ways of thinking and vision of the world. They say hateful phrases towards the indigenous people, such as that miscegenation is improving the race as if the indigenous people were inferior or a defect, they consider the indigenous people as ugly, they are apathetic and indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer and they vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people.

The correct thing would be for the majority of Creoles, the majority of mestizos and all politicians who are not indigenous to go to live in Europe because they love Europe and they always talk about how they would like to travel to Europe, and they always talk about Europeans as if they were the best, when the majority of Europeans despise them, and believe that Creoles and mestizos born on this continent are indigenous.

Most indigenous people have reddish skin, and their reddish skin is of great beauty, as are their almond-shaped or slanted eyes, and their radiant black hair. But, when crossbreeding occurs, many times brown crossbreeds have more opaque skin and lose those reddish tones that are reflected in sunlight.

Regarding environmentalists who always complain about cats for being invasive species: cows and bulls are not native to this continent, cows and bulls are native to Europe, the Middle East and certain regions of Africa.

Cows and bulls arrived on the continent in 1493 when Christopher Columbus introduced the first cows and bulls of Spanish origin. And in India, cows and bulls were imported by the Aryan colonizers who came from Iran and were part of the Persian empire.

Cows, bulls, sheep and goats must have stayed in Europe, certain areas of Africa and the Middle East because those are their places of origin.

If we talk about the majority of Hindus today, the majority, even if they are brown mestizos, their entire culture such as the caste system, the absolutist way of thinking of all or nothing, lack an intermediate point of view that makes a balance, the fanaticism, their religions, and unhygienic practices that endanger health, come from the Aryans. And Buddhism emerged from Hinduism.

El aporte de India al desarrollo de la ganadería en Brasil

Excerpt from that livestock website: At the end of the 19th century, European settlers invaded indigenous lands in the state of Mato Grosso to establish livestock ranches. The problem was the tropical climate, which was not suitable for northern European cattle breeds accustomed to colder climates. Determined to succeed, ranchers introduced special pastures and decided to import cows from distant India, a country that had similar climatic conditions.

You always have to ask yourself why politicians who promote hatred of indigenous people and organizations like the CIA that promote the same hatred of indigenous people are related to Judaism and Christianity, and also to Hinduism and Buddhism, in the style of the New Age:

Publication titled: Indigenous threats according to the CIA. Screenshot retrieved from: <https://www.alainet.org/es/articulo/105052?language=en>

Excerpt from the text: As another exercise of its imperial power, the United States, through its National Intelligence Council, an agency of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), released its 2015 Global Trends report. The newspaper La Jornada of Mexico, published extracts of the document on December 19 and on the 31st El País of Spain did so. According to the CIA, Latin America has a new threat to face, indigenous resistance movements.

The Persians who practiced Zoroastrianism called themselves Aryans, these Aryans had the same genetics as the current Arabs, and when the Aryans from Iran invaded and colonized India, interbreeding between Aryans and Dravidians occurred, and the system of castes where the high castes were made up of those with lighter skin, all white ethnicities (Minoans, Greeks, Romans, Celts, Vikings, Norse, Saxons and Slavs) have this same Indo-European or Eurasian origin.

All this is evidence that at first when the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians emigrated to populate all of Europe, the majority of them had brown skin, but as the climate of Europe was colder this favored those who had lighter skin, As time passed, their skin became whiter as an adaptation to the environment and they developed more body hair as a form of protection for the environment, and since their diet consisted mostly of red meat, they developed more body fat and more bloodthirsty instincts and their organism was modified (epigenetics).

In fact, if we look at the art of the Minoans and the Mycenaeans, who were cultures of Indo-European or Eurasian origin from which Greeks, Romans, Celts and others emerged: Most of them were brown-skinned, except that white people occupied a higher hierarchy within the royalty and within society, and that is why they are represented in the center or in front of the others in most Minoan and Mycenaean art:

Photographs of Minoan and Mycenaean art recovered from the Internet.

In fact, this Minoan and Mycenaean art suggests that the brown Minoans and brown Mycenaeans had much reverence and admiration for the white Minoans and white Mycenaeans.

Most Persians were brown-skinned, but those with lighter skin occupied a higher hierarchy within royalty and society:

Photograph of Persian art, recovered from the Internet

The white Jews supported by the governments of the United States and Europe, and the brown humans who inhabit Palestine, the Cisjordania and Jordan: have the same genetic origin in the Arabs.

What then happens between white Jews and the brown humans of Palestine, Cisjordania and Jordan?

Screenshots recovered from Instagram.

It happens that many white mutations develop a visceral hatred, contempt, desire to dominate and desire to exterminate their brown origins.

I believe that what mainly made white ethnic groups dominate the world was the development of weapons, because Romans, Greeks, Celts, Vikings, Saxons and Slavs focused more on the development of weapons.

It is already known that the Persians developed monotheism with Zoroastrianism where light and darkness were seen as enemies (hence the way of thinking of going to one extreme or the other, polarization or absolutism), and then Zoroastrianism emerged Judaism, and from Judaism came Christianity and Islam.

This seeing light and darkness as enemies, which is the same as seeing man and woman as enemies, day and night as enemies, heat and cold as enemies, and life and death as enemies, and not as complements: it is the origin of the all-or-nothing way of thinking, the origin of all imbalance on the planet, which gives rise to all forms of fanaticism and totalitarianism.

It is like Gnosticism that has the same origin and that sees matter and spirit as enemies (not as complements), the body as a prison and who considers this world to be hell because of that all-or-nothing totalitarian way of thinking that everything has to be happiness, life and peace. And from there arises the New Age belief that the body is bad, that we live in a matrix or holographic prison.

Therefore, the opposite of this way of thinking that light and darkness are enemies, and the absolutism that everything has to be light or that everything has to be darkness: it is the symbol of Ying-Yang (Taijitu) that says that life must be a balance between light and darkness united as a complement, that light has some darkness and that darkness has some light, that many ignorant people associate this symbol with Buddhism, when in reality this symbol comes from of Taoism.

Image recovered from the Internet

As for the Chinese dragon, it represents wisdom and abundance, and symbolizes rain, riverbeds and waves due to its snake-like body.

Images recovered from the Internet

It represents the same as the snake-shaped gods of the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent such as: Quetzalcóatl, Kukulcan and Amaru.

Images recovered from the Internet

But, Judaism, by inventing that the snake represents the fictional character of the devil or Satan in Genesis, and Christianity, by inventing that the dragon represents the fictional character of the devil or Satan in the apocalypse, was a way of denigrating these cultures. And then the New Age came along, inventing extraterrestrial races like reptilians and dragonians to do the same.

For this reason, those who hate indigenous people claim that they are children of the serpent, that is, they are children of the fictional character of the devil or satan.

Among the Chinese ethnicities where the dragon is present are the Han and the Zhuang. But, China's atheist regime banned any belief system, and most of the time the dragon is only used as something mythological or folkloric. In Wuhan, where the animal market from which COVID-19 emerged is located, is a place where atheism predominates.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

This is the same as when the atheist regime of Russia (Soviet Union) banned the religious beliefs of the indigenous ethnic groups of Siberia, caused the assassination of indigenous leaders, and promoted the integration of indigenous people into mainstream society. An atheist regime is just as harmful to indigenous people as Christian religions.

Atheism serves Christianity, atheism leaves a void in humans that Western science and technology cannot fill, that is why the former Soviet Union with an atheist regime gave way to Vladimir Putin's Russia with an Orthodox Christian regime and some atheists in China are converting to Christian religions.

Atheists like Dalas Review (Daniel Santomé Lemus) and agnostics like Dross Rotzank (Angel David Revilla) deny the crimes committed by Christian religions, stating that they are black legends or downplaying them by stating that the victims were few, as if the few or many mattered. Crimes do not stop being crimes because the victims are few.

Atheists like Dalas Review and Santiago Armesilla defend hispanidad (Spanish colonization), there are people who may believe that hispanidad is only the Spanish language, but, in reality, hispanidad is the defense of Spanish colonization, and these atheists justify, defend and They promote the political right and the neoliberals or libertarians who cause massacres of indigenous people in the present. And left-wing atheists are just as harmful.

A clarification: both Dalas Review and Santiago Armesilla defend Hispanicity and both are atheists, but Dalas Review justifies, defends and promotes the right, capitalists and neoliberals such as Donald Trump, Javier Milei and VOX, while Santiago Armesilla affirms be a Marxist communist.

It is tedious to have to mention this again, but the Laws of Burgos promoted by Isabel La Católica, which the Hispanists mention so much, literally said that the indigenous people should be treated well only if they were part of the Catholic religion and submitted to the royalty of Europe.

Isabel La Católica gave this order: -Marry Spaniards with Indian women and Indians with Spanish women.

Hispanists celebrate mestizaje as if it were something good for the indigenous people, when mestizaje was promoted as a way to facilitate evangelization and the whitening of new generations, mestizos were treated better than indigenous people, and mestizaje is extermination of the indigenous people because the majority of mestizos have the way of thinking, tastes, ways of being and vision of the world of Europeans.

The Persians developed Mithraism where the god Mithra is depicted killing a bull, and Mithraism was very popular among Roman soldiers.

The Persians invaded and colonized both Egypt and India. And the Aryans of Iran who were part of the Persian Empire, when they invaded and colonized India, gave rise to the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians, and then the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians, when they expanded throughout Europe, gave rise to all the white ethnic groups.

And as in these white ethnic groups, the diet consisted mainly of red meat, and they focused more on livestock raising bulls, cows, pigs and goats, and therefore, they consumed more resources because they had to destroy many forests and jungles to make pastures for those animals, and they consumed more water to feed those animals, so the resources were depleted faster and to obtain more resources they had to invade and colonize other places, and this made them more warlike, more cruel, more selfish, more individualistic and more bloodthirsty.

It is very disgusting when Dalas Review, many Hispanists and defenders of other forms of colonization refer to the livestock that raises bulls, cows, sheep and goats brought to the continent by European colonizers as if it were a great achievement, development, civilization or progress, when the livestock that is dedicated to raising these animals is the one that pollutes and destroys the planet the most.

It seems tedious and repetitive to have to mention this again, but I'm going to do it: Hispanists believe that attacking Spanish colonization is defending English colonization, French colonization and Portuguese colonization. In reality, attacking colonization is attacking all forms of colonization regardless of the nationality of the colonizers.

Santiago Armesilla has a Celtic appearance, others of these have a Viking appearance and others like Santiago Abascal have a Roman appearance.

An example of how, unlike the Judeo-Christian god, the indigenous gods always represented forces of nature that make life possible are the gods of the indigenous Polynesian ethnic groups:

Laka is the goddess of forests, hula dance and vegetation:

Image recovered from the Internet

Unfortunately, non-indigenous people have created representations of Laka as a white woman, and it is the same thing they did with Ekeko of the Aymara and Quechua. Here you can see the hatred of the indigenous people in how they try to turn even the indigenous gods into whites.

And also wealth for the indigenous people was not about accumulating (capitalism), wealth for the indigenous people was about having abundance to share in their villages and that no one would suffer from need. But, when these New Age people talk about the wealth that indigenous gods like Laka and Ekeko represent, they give it a Western and capitalist interpretation.

Lono is the god of rain, fertility and music.

Image recovered from the Internet

Laka is a goddess associated with fertility, dance, music, vegetation and beauty. She is considered the goddess of the hula dance. Laka personifies creativity and vital energy that is manifested through dance and music.

Laka is associated with lush vegetation and the fertility of the earth, being seen as the divinity that brings life and renewal to nature. Lono is the god of agriculture, rain, peace, fertility and prosperity.

Lono personifies the bounty of nature and is credited with the role of bringing fertility to the land by providing rain and abundant harvests.

Both Laka and Lono are associated with fertility and lush nature. Laka is the goddess of dance and vegetation, while Lono is the god of agriculture and rain. Both are linked to the idea of giving life and prosperity to the earth and its inhabitants.

Laka can be seen as bringing energy and vitality to nature, preparing it for the process of growth and fertility which is then fueled by Lono, who brings the rain necessary to make crops flourish.

Tané is the god of the jungle, birds and the forest.

Image recovered from the Internet

Tané is the god of forests and wildlife. He is the son of Ranginui (the sky) and Papatūānuku (the earth), and is the brother of other deities such as Tāwhirimātea (god of wind and storms).

It is associated with fertility, the growth of trees and flora, as well as the protection of animals and birds. It is also considered a symbol of harmony between heaven and earth.

Tané represents the interdependence between human beings and nature, as well as the importance of caring for and respecting the environment. It is invoked in ceremonies related to planting and harvesting, as well as in rituals for the protection and conservation of forests.

Atheists, skeptics and agnostics who emerged from Western Europe (like the Christian religions) compare the belief in these indigenous gods with the belief in the Judeo-Christian god, and affirm that these beliefs are primitive, backward, myths or ignorance.

But, all these gods and goddesses of the indigenous ethnic groups represent forces of nature such as the sun, the moon, the forest, the rain, the sea and the jungle that make life possible and are creators of life because they produce the conditions for life to develop.

Whereas, the Judeo-Christian god is a god separate from nature and does not represent forces of nature. Therefore, belief in these gods and goddesses is not comparable with belief in the Judeo-Christian god.

Also, before the arrival of the Spanish colonizers, the Filipino gods also represented forces of nature.

Mayari is the Filipino goddess of the moon and night. Lakapati is a Filipino and androgynous deity of agriculture and fertility.

Images recovered from the Internet.

Mayari is the goddess of the moon and the night, and the sister of Apolaki, the god of the sun. Mayari and Apolaki are children of Bathala, the supreme god.

Mayari is depicted as a beautiful woman with only one eye, as she lost one of her eyes during a dispute with her brother Apolaki.

Mayari represents the duality of light and darkness, as well as the harmony between opposites. She is revered as a deity who balances the cycle of day and night.

Lakapati is a fertility deity. Lakapati is portrayed as a benevolent deity.

Lakapati represents the sacred connection between humans and the earth, as well as the importance of fertility and abundance in everyday life.

Apolaki is the Filipino god of the sun and war. The warrior part is important to protect the territory, carry out revenge or justice, protect the innocent, protect the vulnerable and protect the weakest.

Image recovered from the Internet

Apolaki is represented as a powerful and brave god, associated with light, solar energy and heat. He is described as a celestial warrior who travels across the sky in his sun chariot, bringing light and vitality to the world.

Apolaki represents the strength and energy of the sun, as well as the light and heat that provides life to the earth. His cult is linked to agriculture and prosperity, since his presence in the sky is considered vital for the growth of crops and the fertility of the land.

Additionally, it is invoked in ceremonies and rituals to ensure the protection and well-being of the community.

What if in reality white ethnicities like the Greeks copied parts of non-white ethnicities and warped them to their own vision?

Because let us remember that Pythagoras and his Pythagorean school for the Pythagorean theorem, for geometry and for mathematics were inspired by the ancient Egyptians. I believe that what made white ethnic groups dominate the world was simply that they focused more on the development of weapons.

Apolaki sounds very similar to the Greek god Apollo. White ethnicities have always been dedicated to replacing non-white ethnicities. It was believed that the word duende originated in white ethnic groups such as the Celts of Europe, but the Filipinos believed in the Duendes and the Miskitos believed in the Duhindus, so it seems that the origin of the word is not European.

Also the laki part of Apolaki sounds very similar to Loki of the Vikings and Norse.

Diwatas are nature spirits that live in forests and trees.

Image recovered from the Internet

The Duwendes are the Filipino elves, these nature spirits are the guardians of the forests, rivers and mountains, and can take the forms of both humans and animals of other species. These goblins are the same as the Duhindu of the Miskitos and the Curupira of the indigenous ethnic groups of Brazil.

Image recovered from the Internet

The Diwatas are supernatural and divine beings. They are considered benign spirits, often associated with nature, the elements and natural phenomena. They are revered and respected as guardians of the earth and living beings.

The concept of Diwatas has its roots in the ancient animist beliefs of the Philippines, where they believed in spirits that inhabited nature and influenced people's daily lives.

They are attributed the ability to bless and grant prosperity to those who honor and respect them.

Diwatas symbolize the sacred connection between humans and nature, as well as the importance of caring for and respecting the environment. They also represent the idea that the divine is present everywhere.

Duwendes are small nature spirits believed to inhabit nature, particularly in places such as forests, mountains, streams, or even inside houses.

They are considered mischievous beings, but they can also be protectors of nature and homes if treated with respect.

The Duwendes symbolize the belief in the existence of supernatural beings that inhabit the natural world and influence people's daily lives.

With the arrival of the Spanish colonizers to the Philippines, these indigenous beliefs were destroyed, the majority of Filipinos converted to Christian religions and another small percentage made syncretism which is the same as the New Age of indigenous beliefs with beliefs Catholic Christians, and that is the same thing that happens in Mexico and Bolivia, and this syncretism (New Age) is a form of colonialism.

The Philippines suffered two invasions, first from the Spanish colonizers:

Images recovered from the Internet

And then the invasion by the United States that caused the massacre of Filipinos:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Filipinos have the same genetics as the indigenous ethnic groups of the Abya Yala continent (to which the colonizers gave the name America):

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Those who invent conspiracy theories such as Christians, conservatives, right-wing and neoliberals always make it believe that white people are innocent victims and that elites want to replace white people.

But, in reality, as I explain in the books: the elites in power, the governments, the Christian religions and the Freemasons who viscerally hate the indigenous people, and they always try to eliminate the indigenous people through exterminations, genocides and miscegenation, and the real replacement they have always wanted to do is to replace indigenous people with humans who are not indigenous.

True strength and bravery is what these indigenous men and these Filipino men represent:

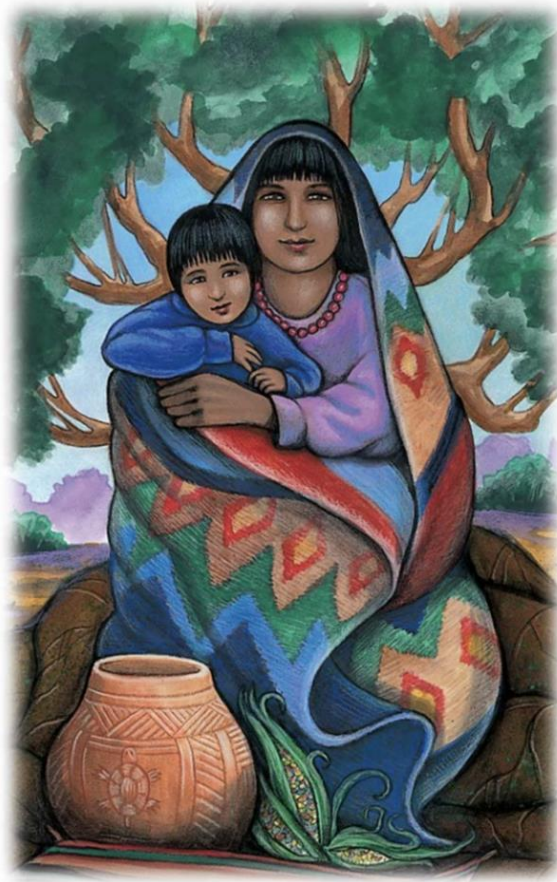

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Not those criminals that the Hispanistas (defenders of Spanish colonization), that the defenders of Portuguese colonization, that the defenders of English colonization and that the defenders of French colonization so admire and consider heroic.

Both the colonizers of the past and the colonizers of the present are just cowards who confront the indigenous people with weapons that the indigenous people do not have, and their only motivation is hatred and the desire to dominate or subjugate because the indigenous people did them no harm.

Also, it is cowardly what governments, elites, media such as television and the majority who are not indigenous do, treating indigenous people as criminals, terrorists or savages when they defend themselves or take revenge.

It is very cowardly that they hurt the indigenous people and expect that the indigenous people do not defend themselves, that the indigenous people turn the other cheek, that the indigenous people forgive them everything and love their enemies who have never had empathy with them.

Mother of Earth

This painting is from a Tarot deck I have, the card represents Mother Earth.

How the New Age is a religious salad, and they mix the Judeo-Christian god (who condemns all forms of magic and worship of other gods with death), and his servants (Jesus Christ, angels, virgins and saints) with the belief in other gods and magical practices. The New Age often also takes over indigenous practices such as shamanism and many of them call themselves shamans.

The problem is that many of these New Age believe that they are indigenous, although they do not have their way of being, they do not have their way of thinking and they do not have their vision of the world, therefore, they are part of the replaced. And there have been cases of these New Age shamans who exercise violence towards true shamans who are indigenous:

Screenshots recovered from Instagram

Now I have to clarify something: when I was New Age in my past, I was not aware of why the New Age is just as bad as the Christian religions, and so there are many people within the New Age who are not aware of why the New Age is just as bad as the Christian religions.

The problem is that there are many people of Christian religions and New Age people who visit indigenous territories to influence these beliefs, thinking that they are doing good and without being aware that they are part of colonialism.

There are people of Christian religions and people of the New Age who truly believe they feel appreciation for indigenous people, and do not realize that those beliefs that they promote in subtle ways, hatred of indigenous people, seek to integrate indigenous people to the dominant society and that the indigenous people submit.

For example: we hear New Age people say that the Judeo-Christian god lives within nature and that he is the same as the Creator god of indigenous ethnic groups such as Ñamandu, Tocu, Sibü, Omama or the Great Spirit. When the Judeo-Christian god is very clear in the Bible that he condemns any form of magic, he condemns the worship of other gods and that he is not nature.

Meanwhile, the Creator god in which the indigenous ethnic groups believe, be it Ñamandu, Tocu, the Great Spirit, Sibü, Omama or any other, does not condemn magic, does not condemn the worship of other gods and lives within nature.

Any Creator god of any indigenous ethnic group represents the universe and nature as a united whole, and their cult includes shamanic practices, ceremonies and rituals, and the worship of other gods. The temple of any Creator god of any indigenous ethnic group is nature, not buildings. But, these New Ages do not understand these differences with the Judeo-Christian god and promote syncretism.

Other times these New Age people believe that indigenous ethnic groups are the same as the white ethnic groups of the past such as the Celts, Greeks, Vikings, Slavs, Saxons, Basques and others. When the white ethnic groups of the past were just as selfish, individualistic and consumerist as the white Christians.

In addition, the white ethnic groups of the past such as Celts, Greeks, Vikings, Basques, Slavs and others were dedicated to livestock farming that raised bulls, cows, sheep and goats for meat, wool, milk, leather and dairy products, generating destruction of forests and jungles to make pastures for these animals, and excessive emissions of methane and carbon dioxide that pollute and cause climate change.

When the European colonizers of Christian religions arrived to this continent, they were the ones who brought cows, bulls, sheep and goats from Europe to obtain meat, milk, wool, leather and dairy products in this continent that they called America.

And the majority of invasions of indigenous territories and the majority of massacres of indigenous people were to use their territories for livestock farming that is dedicated to raising these animals.

What would have happened if Europeans who believed in other gods such as the Celts, Greeks, Romans, Vikings, Slavs and others had developed shooting weapons such as rifles, ships that reached great speed and had arrived on this continent before Christian Europeans?

The answer is simple: they would have done the same damage to the indigenous people that the Christian Europeans did and they would have exterminated the majority of indigenous people just as the Christian Europeans did, because the nature of these white ethnic groups was always to invade, colonize, dominate and subjugate.

In addition, of the majority of Creoles, Europeans and white mestizos, I also consider the majority of brown mestizos as white because their tastes, ways of thinking, ways of being and vision of the world are the same as those of the Europeans.

And many of these brown mestizos consider the indigenous people as a defect, as inferior, as backward, as primitive and as ignorant, for this reason, they say hateful phrases to the indigenous people such as that miscegenation is improving the race, and many of these mestizos Pardos treat the indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as criminals, terrorists and savages.

Also, the majority of these brown mestizos remain silent about what the indigenous people suffer, they are apathetic and indifferent to the lives of the indigenous people, and they vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people.

But, when it suits them in their hypocrisy, they say they are proud of their indigenous roots and that they had an indigenous ancestor such as a grandfather or great-grandfather, as if that will help the indigenous people in some way or improve the situation of the indigenous people in some way.

More examples of how the indigenous ethnic groups of the Philippines, like the indigenous ethnic groups of other countries in Asia, are the same as the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

And those who hate indigenous people use this to promote hatred of indigenous people by claiming that the indigenous people of this continent have Asian ancestors, but white ethnicities are also of Indo-European or Eurasian origin. The thing is, white Asians are not the same as indigenous Asians.

On the other hand, the majority would not accept that hatred of black people is promoted because their ancestors are from Africa, but they are indifferent to hatred of the indigenous people of this continent being promoted based on the fact that their ancestors were indigenous Asians.

It must also be clarified that, just as on this continent: no countries existed before the arrival of the European colonizers. The country of the Philippines and the name Philippines was given by the Spanish colonizers. Before the Spanish colonizers arrived in this place in Asia, it was not called the Philippines and the indigenous people of that place did not know the concept of countries.

And also, those who hate the indigenous people use this saying that the ancestors of the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent came from Siberia to say that the indigenous people also invaded and colonized this continent, but that never happened, because when the indigenous people of Siberia came to this continent, there were no other human inhabitants here.

Therefore, as the indigenous ethnic groups are the first inhabitants of this continent to which the Europeans gave the name America, this Abya Yala continent does belong to them.

Unfortunately, just as happens with the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent, with the majority of indigenous people who belong to the indigenous ethnic groups of Asia, colonization has also occurred on a mental level through Christian religions, through Islamic religions and through the New Age.

And yes, the ancient Egyptians before being colonized by the Persians, Greeks, Romans and Arabs: they had traits of both the indigenous people of Asia and the black Africans. Because the Egyptians are what is known as Afro-Asian ethnicities that had both Asian genetics and African genetics.

Photographs of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

Black people who belong to the indigenous Bushmen ethnic group in Africa also have these almond-shaped eyes:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Slanted eyes and almond-shaped eyes indicate personality traits. And the rounder eyes of the white ethnic groups, too, and more than the origin of the white ethnic groups are the Sumerians and the Persians

Therefore, when it is said that white ethnicities are Indo-European or Eurasian, it is always related to the Aryans of Persia who invaded and colonized India, and these Persians are genetically connected to the Sumerians.

For this reason, there are people of white paganisms such as Celtic and Viking, as well as Spaniards and other nationalities in Europe, who are also attracted to the Persians, the Minoans and the Sumerians. When I was among those white paganisms, I learned of a Spanish woman who practiced Celtic paganism and was quite attracted to the Sumerians, especially the Sumerian goddess Innana.

When you look for statues of Sumerians, they always have those wider or rounder eyes and long beards so common in Europeans and Jews:

Photographs of Sumerian statues recovered from the Internet

Therefore, it is very obvious that Sumerians, Persians and the white ethnic groups of Europe were part of the same races.

Also in statues of the Sumerian goddess called Innana, the same type of eyes of the white ethnic groups is observed:

Photograph of Sumerian statue recovered from the Internet

Also, the New Agers and the conservatives who invent conspiracy theories are very annoying, because because of them, we cannot talk about the Sumerians, the Egyptian pyramids, the Mayan pyramids, the Nazca lines and from other cultures, without someone mentioning reptilians, without someone mentioning the belief in extraterrestrials that visit us, without someone mentioning Atlanteans, which is quite annoying.

And this is because it is in the interests of neo-Nazis and white supremacists like those in Ancestral Aliens on the History Channel to always relate to both the worst cultures such as Vikings, Sumerians, Romans, Celts and Persians and to the best cultures such as indigenous ethnic groups and ancient Egyptians with the belief in extraterrestrials that visit us, reptilians, Pleiadians, Atlanteans, Lemurians, intraterrestrials and other fantasies of the New Age.

The Sumerians were Middle Eastern ethnic groups like any other, nothing to do with extraterrestrials.

The same European traits are also seen in the Aryans from Persia who colonized India, because these Aryans from Iran come from the same genetic line as the Sumerians:

Although the majority of Hindus today are mestizos (mixture of Aryans with Dravidians) and therefore have both Dravidian characteristics such as dark skin and Aryan characteristics, there are some Hindus with completely Aryan features and who belong to the upper castes:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

In Iran, which means land of the Aryans and which was where the Aryans who colonized India came from, a part of the population has those European features because remember that there were whiter Persians and brown Persians:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Sephardic Jews and Ashkenazi Jews have the same European genetics:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Another similarity between Egyptians and indigenous ethnic groups is:

The Egyptian god Osiris (Egyptian name: Usir) and the Mayan god Hu Nal Ye. The god Usir is murdered by the god Seth and then resurrected with the help of the goddess Isis (Egyptian name: Aset). Hul Nal Ye is beheaded, descends to the underworld, then resurrects and ascends to heaven.

Images recovered from the Internet

Both represent processes that occur in nature:

The death of Usir represents when the waters of the Nile recede and when the wheat seeds are buried, and the resurrection of Usir represents when the waters of the Nile rise bringing the silt that makes the earth fertile and when the wheat seeds are born.

Hul Nal Ye's death by beheading represents when the ear of corn is cut, his descent to the Underworld to the burial of the corn seed, his resurrection when the plant is born, and his ascent to heaven represents when the corn plant grows.

Nature is a constant process of death and rebirth (resurrection).

For the myth of Jesus Christ: Christians plagiarized the idea of Usir's death and resurrection, but to invent something that does not represent a natural process.

Usir's favorite offerings are the offerings of bread and wine, and the Christians plagiarized them in the offerings of bread and wine at the Last Supper, and the Catholics when they sing that bread and wine on the altar are offerings of love, and that bread and wine on the altar are your body and blood sir (the most cynical plagiarism of Usir's rites).

The nefarious Jews and the nefarious Christians plagiarized the Egyptians in many places, but they always made people believe that the Egyptians were the worst, that they were tyrants and that they used slaves to build.

Cynicism, too, is observed when genocidal Freemasonry and enemy of indigenous people, Rosicrucians, occult sects and the New Age mix the Judeo-Christian with the Egyptian.

The lie has been made to believe that the Spanish, Portuguese, English and French invented bread and wine. Actually, bread and wine was invented by the Egyptians.

The Egyptians were inspired by Pythagoras and his Pythagorean school of mathematics and geometry. Thus, also, the Greeks and Romans were inspired by the Egyptians for wine, and the Greeks and Romans used wine in rituals that included orgies such as those dedicated to the god Bacchus.

It is very necessary to mention the orgies practiced by white ethnic groups such as the Greeks, Romans and Celts because some videos have emerged on YouTube that claim that the Egyptians had sexual practices that were disgusting, but they never mention the orgies with all kinds of sexual activities carried out by white ethnic groups and they never mention that incest was very common among European royalty.

When the Greeks and Romans invade and colonize Egypt, they begin to create statues of the goddess Isis depicting her as a white woman. Then when the Romans conquered the Celts of Spain, Portugal, England, France, Ireland and Scotland, they took those statues to those countries.

And then when the Christian period of Europe comes, murderers like the Knights Templar disguise the cult of Isis with the cult of the black virgins.

The Templars, also called crusaders (where the symbol of the red cross on a white background used by the European colonizers so revered by the Hispanists comes from) are believed to have influenced the creation of banks because they developed a system of loans and the creation of Freemasonry because the Gothic cathedrals of Europe were created by Freemasons who at that time were only builders, but later became lodges.

The Templars or crusaders obtained wealth by invading places and murdering during the crusades. These Templars gave a percentage of the wealth to the pope.

But, Pope Clement V and King Philip IV were not satisfied with the percentage of wealth that the Templars gave them, and they wanted to keep all the wealth accumulated by the Templars. So Pope Clement V and King Philip IV created a conspiracy to eliminate the Templars, which is how they caused the Templar named Jacques de Molay to be tortured and burned alive at the stake.

It is said that before being burned at the stake: the Templar Jacques de Molay cursed Pope Clement V and King Philip IV. And then Pope Clement V died of an illness that caused him acute diarrhea and alone because no one wanted to go near him, and King Philip IV died during an accident on one of the many hunting excursions for pleasure (without being necessary to survive) that have always been practiced by European royalty.

Photographs recovered on the Internet

The history of the Templars and the Catholic Church is evidence of how sometimes the Christian elites themselves betray and murder each other, because that is their genetic nature. And on this continent, both the political and Christian right and the political and Christian left: they live in a constant relationship of alliances and betrayals 🤡 🤡 🤡 🤡 🤡 🤡 .

I was not lying when he stated that genetics does play a role: many people of Celtic, Roman or Viking appearance practice hunting for pleasure, bullfighting and cockfighting; in countries where the official language is Spanish, many are Hispanicists (defenders of Spanish colonization), in Brazil many defend Portuguese colonization, and in the United States and Canada many defend English colonization and French colonization.

And many brown mestizos, although they have indigenous features, do the same and prefer European, and many mulattoes and blacks do the same who possibly due to the round shape of their eyes are genetically related to the black Bantu who hunted blacks who belonged to ethnic groups indigenous people such as the massacres of the Bushmen who have more almond-shaped or slanted eyes.

Continuing with the theme of the black virgins related to Isis: the patron saint of Costa Rica is the Virgin of the Angels and the Catholics of Costa Rica call her la negrita.

The cathedral of the Virgin of Guadalupe in Mexico is located in a place that was sacred to the indigenous people and where the cult of the goddess Tonantzin was practiced.

It is strange that in the legend of the Virgin of Guadalupe it is stated that this virgin appeared to an indigenous person of the Chichimeca ethnic group named Juan Diego Cuauhtlatatzin. It seems like a replacement of indigenous goddesses with Catholic virgins, just like the replacement of the Egyptian goddess Isis with the black virgins.

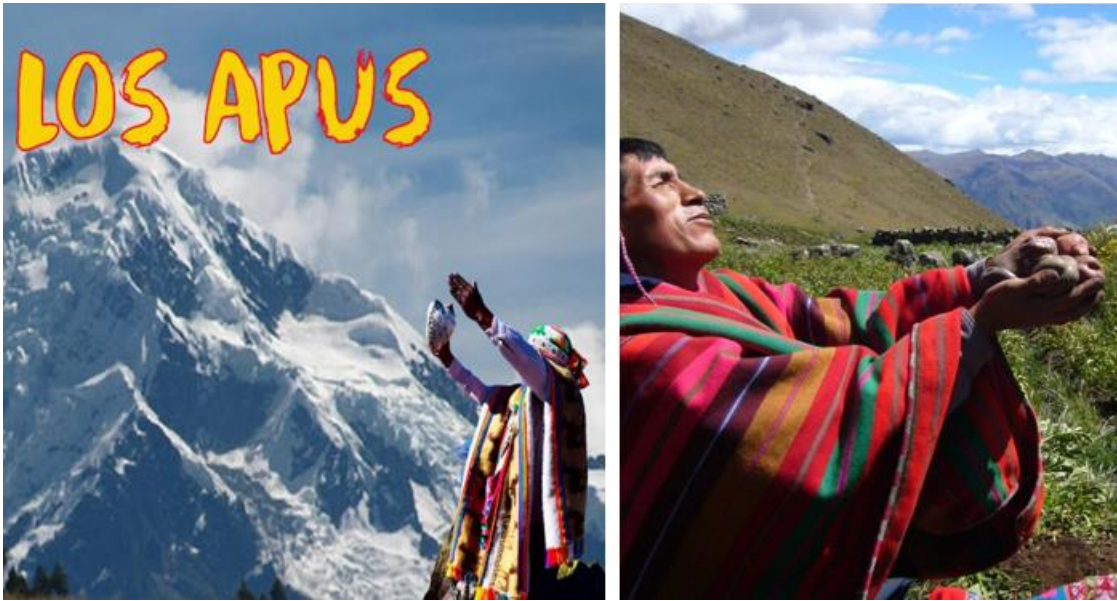

More evidence of the connection of the Egyptians with indigenous ethnic groups:

Among the Egyptians, there was a belief in a primordial mountain called Benben, which was associated with the creation and origin of the world. This mountain was considered the place where Ra, the sun god, had first emerged. The pyramids, with their pointed shape rising into the sky, were perceived as representations of this primordial mountain.

The Apus are mountain spirits revered in the worldview of several indigenous cultures of the Andes. These cultures include the Quechua, the Q'eros and the Aymara.

The lotus flower, known in ancient Egypt as "Nymphaea caerulea" or blue lotus.

The lotus flower was considered a symbol of rebirth in Egyptian culture due to its ability to emerge from the waters of the Nile each morning. This quality of the lotus flower was associated with the daily rebirth of the sun, as Ra was believed to be reborn each day at dawn.

In the Mayans: The water lily, also known as the water lily or lotus flower, was related to Ixchel and its relationship with fertility and aquatic life. It is believed that the water lily flower symbolized Ixchel's power to bring fertility to the land.

Bukele vs la Agenda 2030: ¿Qué piensa el presidente de El Salvador?

Publication titled: Bukele vs the 2030 Agenda: What does the president of El Salvador think? Screenshot retrieved from: <https://sirse.info/bukele-vs-la-agenda-2030-que-piensa-el-presidente-de-el-salvador/>

Although it must be recognized that Nayib Bukele's treatment of the gangs has been correct and that a strong hand must be taken against the gangs, and this is the only good thing that Nayib Bukele's government has had and that is why it wins in El Salvador, too, innocent people have been arrested based on prejudice.

And since Nayib Bukele has the same colonialist concept of development and progress where he considers that what is modern is cities full of garbage and destroying the natural environment in exchange for money and Western technology, has prohibited sales on the streets in the cities, which causes people with limited resources to suffer more hunger and needs by prohibiting them from selling on the streets to favor business in commercial premises, in order, according to him, to modernize the country (by modernizing, refers to making it more European or similar to the United States) which means in the future causing the extermination of indigenous people.

What happens is that the pacifist left like the president of Colombia called Gustavo Petro do not criticize Nayib Bukele for what he should be criticized for, they criticize Nayib Bukele for his treatment of the gangs, and with this they favor the right and the neoliberal or libertarian.

At first, Nayib Bukele claimed to be from the Left, but then when leftists like Gustavo Petro and the ONU began to criticize him for his treatment of gangs, then he became more on the side of the political right and neoliberals or libertarians, just like the atheist Dalas Review who, after claiming that his feminist ex-girlfriends made false complaints against him, began to promote more the political right and neoliberals.

In fact, I always remember that YouTubers and Influencers from the political right and neoliberals began to gain a lot of influence for their videos criticizing feminism.

As part of the plan of Masonic duality represented by the black and white chess floor, and the red apron and the blue apron: the political left always does and says things that end up benefiting the political right, the neoliberals or libertarians and the capitalism.

Whether from the political left or the political right, Nayib Bukele was always another colonizer because he always made the indigenous people invisible, his priority was never the indigenous people, and his priority was always the criollos and mestizos over the indigenous people.

Nayib Bukele once condemned the genocide of indigenous children in Catholic schools in Canada, but Nayib Bukele is a Christian and this genocide of indigenous children in Canada was caused by Christianity.

And, on the other hand, politicians often condemn the crimes and genocides that indigenous people suffered in the past, but they do not care about the crimes, injustices and genocides that indigenous people continue to suffer in the present.

The majority has that attitude of when the indigenous people have suffered extermination, they condemn this when all this has been done, but at the moment when these exterminations of indigenous people are happening, they remain silent, apathetic, indifferent and vote for the politicians who cause these exterminations, and they treat indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as criminals, terrorists or savages.

When Nayib Bukele talks about gender ideology and the 2030 agenda, he shows that he was always part of the political and neoliberal right.

But, in addition, those who began to talk about gender ideology and the 2030 agenda were the conservatives who invented conspiracy theories, which is why Nayib Bukele proves to be a believer in conspiracy theories invented by conservatives, and it is those conspiracy theories invented by conservatives that provide support to the political right and neoliberals or libertarians.

On the other hand, they talk about the word ideology as if it will always mean something bad, when ideology simply means a set of ideas, and the Christian, conservative, political right, and neoliberal or libertarian ideas that they promote are ideologies because they are based on a system of ideas.

When I teach sexuality and affectivity classes at a school, what is taught in those classes is to prevent sexually transmitted diseases, to prevent unwanted pregnancies, to seek help in case of suffering sexual abuse or rape and to detect the signs that a person is a victim, to seek help if they suffer any type of violence, to prevent bullying and to respect the LGBT population.

Respecting the LGBT population is not the same as teaching students to be homosexual, but these stupid conservatives who make up conspiracy theories believe that teaching to respect homosexuals is the same as teaching students to be homosexual.

Furthermore, in these sexuality and emotional classes, pornography is not taught, and if there are teachers who commit sexual abuse that has nothing to do with these classes, there are also cases of religion teachers who commit sexual abuse against students.

To finish this topic, these stupid criminals refer to sexuality and affectivity classes in schools and colleges as an imposition, when in reality: religion classes in schools and colleges are the true imposition.

And the fact that the media such as television, and the entertainment industry such as movies and series promote Judeo-Christian beliefs is Christian imposition and dictatorship.

Nayib Bukele on his Twitter account: -It is clear that what happened in Canada was not an isolated case, but a SYSTEMATIC extermination of indigenous children. Recovered from:

<https://twitter.com/nayibbukele/status/1410300190163193856>

You forget to mention that: these physical, verbal and sexual abuses, and these exterminations of indigenous children, happened in Catholic schools in Canada, and that, therefore, they were caused by Christianity.

Milei, Bukele, Abascal, Eduardo Bolsonaro and Verástegui together at the most important conservative conference in the world:

Image recovered from the Internet

The government of Jair Bolsonaro, who is the same as his son Eduardo Bolsonaro, caused the following murders of indigenous people in Brazil, supported by the majority of the population of Brazil who, in Lula's government, also voted for deputies and senators who approved the law of the Temporary Framework that harms indigenous people:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Therefore, when Nayib Bukele pretends to condemn the extermination of indigenous children in Canada, but only the exterminations of indigenous people in the past and not the exterminations of indigenous people in the present, Nayib Bukele is just a clown:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Thus, as in the indigenous ethnic groups there were sacred trees, like the ceiba tree for the Mayans. The Egyptians represented the goddess Nut (goddess of the sky) emerging from a sycamore tree:

Photograph of Egyptian art recovered from the Internet

To create the concept of dryads as divinities that emerge from trees: the Greeks were inspired by Egyptian art that refers to the goddess Nut. And before the Greeks: the indigenous ethnic groups of the Philippines believed in the Diwatas, which are spirits that inhabit the forests and trees.

Just as you have to ask yourself:

What is original about Jews and Christians?

You have to ask yourself:

What was original about the Greeks and Romans?

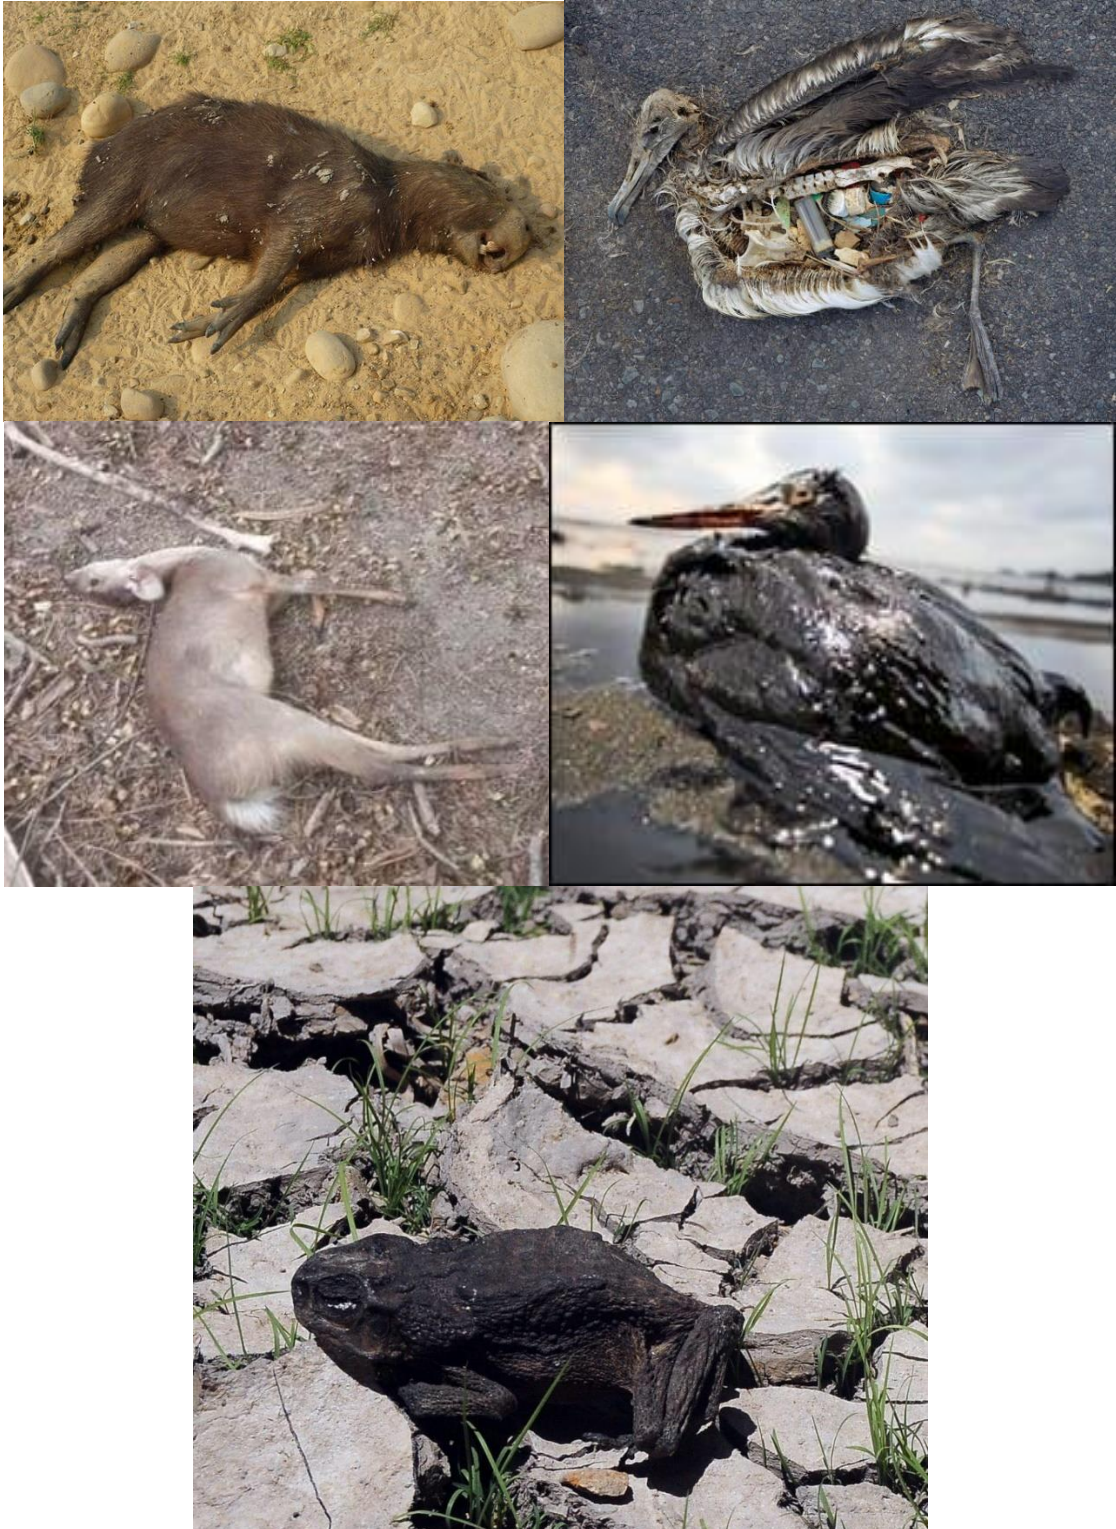

Photographs of Congo monkeys dying from high temperatures. Photographs recovered from the Internet.

The fault of all these animals that are dying due to high temperatures lies with the majority of those who are not indigenous, and livestock farming that is dedicated to raising bulls, cows, sheep and goats by destroying forests and jungles to make pastures for these animals and generating excessive emissions of methane and carbon dioxide.

It is the fault of the Christian religions that make the majority believe that they can live without the natural environment and the conspiracy theories invented by conservatives who deny climate change

The European colonizers who brought livestock farming dedicated to raising bulls, cows, sheep and goats to this continent, who brought the idea that civilization, development and progress is to pollute and destroy the environment to generate money, Western technology and live in cities full of garbage, and who brought Christian religions to the continent are to blame for climate change along with the majority of humanity today.

The majority of humanity that is not indigenous is to blame for all these animals that die because of high temperatures, water pollution, air pollution, garbage and oil pollution that governments, elites and the stupid majority consider development, progress and civilization, and which conservatives who invent conspiracy theories by denying climate change say it doesn't matter:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

And it doesn't seem fair to me that someday those of us who are different from the majority are going to die because of the damn majority. This is why the majority have no forgiveness.

The Instagram account called indigenousnatedna made a publication claiming that Mexicans are native (indigenous):

Screenshot recovered from Instagram.

There is a big problem with this publication, possibly from someone white from the United States, and that is that in the United States, just as in Europe, mestizos are confused with indigenous people and there is a tendency to believe that they are the same. And the reason why this is something very serious is that it favors the extermination and genocide that many indigenous ethnic groups continue to suffer today.

Many times the mestizos, even if they are brown mestizos with indigenous features, are the ones who despise the indigenous people the most, those who reject and discriminate against the indigenous people the most, and say hateful phrases towards the indigenous people such as that miscegenation is improving the race.

Furthermore, the majority of mestizos have the same way of being, the same way of thinking and the same vision of the world as Europeans, and they are apathetic and indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer, and they even vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people.

The ranch culture of Mexicans who are not indigenous comes from Europeans because cows and bulls were brought by Europeans to this continent, bullfighting and cockfighting in Mexico were also brought by Europeans, and that way of thinking sexism that many Mexicans who are not indigenous have that harming the weakest or most vulnerable and not crying is being a man and strong comes from Europeans.

This is why narcocorridos and narco soap operas are so popular; non-indigenous Mexicans are very racist because they use words like prieto and indian as insults.

Something that very few know is that in the past: the government of Mexico and the government of the United States had alliances to exterminate indigenous ethnic groups in Mexico, and the United States government sent military equipment to the government of Mexico to invade indigenous territories and murder indigenous people.

Remember the cartoon of the indigenous cowboy produced by the United States and what Bolsonaro said in Brazil about integrating indigenous people into society, which in a subtle way means that they stop being indigenous.

It is like a mestizo Mexican who calls himself Xiu and who has a page on Facebook, he attacks Spanish colonization, but not to defend the indigenous people of Mexico of the present, he does it to defend the mestizos of Mexico (remember the replacement similar to what the Egyptians suffered who were supplanted by Persians, Greeks, Romans and Arabs).

This Xiu even justifies the damage that mestizos from Mexico do to the indigenous people of Mexico by saying that Europeans should not get involved in what does not matter to them, and even defends the existence of countries or homelands on this continent that is a colonialist invention based on the Roman motto of divide and conquer.

This Xiu does not talk about feeling pride in the indigenous people of the present. Xiu talks about feeling pride in indigenous roots or indigenous ancestors as if indigenous people only existed in the past.

Therefore, it is not surprising that many indigenous people have their minds so colonized with things brought by Europeans, when the system makes them invisible and tries to replace them with mestizos. It is not the fault of the indigenous people to have their minds colonized, it is the fault of the majority, 100% the fault is the fault of the majority who are not indigenous.

Before someone tells me that the United States government did not collaborate with the Mexican government in the extermination of indigenous ethnic groups in Mexico:

In the Caste War, Mexican president Justo Sierra O'Reilly asked the United States for help in 1847 to exterminate the indigenous Mayan ethnic group in Yucatan and this criminal has a statue in his honor in Mexico.

Statue in honor of the trash of Justo Sierra O'Reilly, this same thing happens throughout the continent with all the governments formed by Creoles and mestizos that oppress the indigenous people and treat them like criminals if they defend themselves or take revenge through damned means communication like shit on television. Photograph recovered from the Internet.

In The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the United States government asked the government of Mexico to combat the indigenous people of the Apache ethnic group.

In the following photograph, indigenous people of the Yaqui ethnic group murdered by mestizo Mexicans in the year 1900. The Yaquis suffered the continuous hostility of the Government, the theft of their lands and their massive deportation as a work force to Yucatán.

After the ritual, we eat and drink part of the offerings, and the other part of the offerings we leave on the altar one day and the next day we leave them in a natural place such as a forest, garden or park.

Because of their reddish skin, their radiant black hair and their almond-shaped or slanted eyes, many indigenous people possess a great beauty that the majority of those who are not indigenous will never be able to surpass:

When the Jews wrote the Old Testament (Torah and Tanakh), and invented that fictitious god and the fictitious character of the devil or Satan that the majority of humanity believes in, it is obvious that they did not know the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent, but they did know the Egyptians and the Asians.

The cobra goddess is called Wadjet and is an Egyptian goddess who represents the fertility of the soil and waters. And that reminds us of the indigenous gods Quetzalcóatl, Amaru and Kukulcan.

When the Jews invented that the snake represented the devil or Satan in Genesis, it was a way of denigrating older cultures where snakes were symbols of wisdom, river beds and volcanic veins.

And when their Christian children invent that the dragon represents the devil or Satan in the apocalypse, it was a way of denigrating Asian cultures that had the dragon as a symbol of wisdom, river beds and volcanic veins.

Numerous archaeological investigations in Egypt have not found direct evidence of the presence of Jews as slaves or of the story of Moses as described in the biblical scriptures. Egyptian records do not specifically mention Jews as slaves or events that exactly match the biblical Exodus narrative.

Scholars point out that the traditional chronology of the Exodus and the construction of the pyramids does not match the archaeological evidence and the dates established for the reign of the pharaohs. Furthermore, the historical context does not seem to support the narrative of a large mass of Hebrew slaves building monuments such as the pyramids.

Archaeological investigations have revealed evidence that the pyramids were built by skilled workers and not slaves. Remains of settlements and graves have been found near construction sites suggesting that workers were treated appropriately and were part of an organized and paid workforce.

The construction of the pyramids required a large amount of manpower, but also advanced planning, technical skills, and sophisticated mathematical and architectural knowledge. This level of organization and knowledge does not match the image of a mass of disorganized slaves.

The thing is that many of the believers in this god invented by the Jews, in addition to being murderers, thieves, invaders, plagiarists, true slavers and genocides: they have always proven to be liars who love to defame, slander and insult the cultures they want to destroy. It is as if many believers in this god invented by the Jews project what they are onto cultures they hate.

Detailed archaeological studies have shown that the pyramids were built by human labor. Tools, artifacts, quarry marks and evidence of worker settlements have been found near the construction sites, indicating that it was humans who created these enormous works of architecture.

The construction of the pyramids required the advanced knowledge of engineering, mathematics, and architecture that the ancient Egyptians possessed. Construction methods, such as the precise alignment of stone blocks, the construction ramp, and the use of primitive cranes, are well documented in Egyptian archeology and do not require alien technology.

And to refute the white supremacists and Eurocentrics who say that the Greek named Alexander the Great helped build the pyramids: it is known for certain that the monumental pyramids were built in the III Dynasty, these are the Egyptian step pyramids that are the same as the pyramids of indigenous ethnic groups such as the Mayans, Zapotecs, Teotihuacanos and Aztecs.

And the classical pyramids of Cheops, Khafre, and Mycerinus were built in the IV Dynasty. Dynasty III and Dynasty IV existed before being invaded and colonized by the Persians, Greeks, Romans and Arabs.

So, it was not the Egyptians who plagiarized mathematical, architectural and geometric knowledge from the Greeks and Romans. In reality, it was the Greeks and Romans who plagiarized mathematical, architectural and geometric knowledge from the Egyptians.

The Romans colonized the rest of Europe, and then their European descendants (mixture of Romans with Celts) invaded and colonized this continent.

There is no evidence in Egyptian historical records that the pyramids were built by aliens. Egyptian texts and hieroglyphs clearly describe the construction methods and dedication of the pharaohs and human workers in the construction of these monuments.

The origin of the Egyptians is Afro-Asiatic. The following ethnic groups in sub-Saharan Africa have the same type of almond-shaped or slanted eyes: Fulani, Hausa and Igbo. They do not look like the Bantu, who have rounder eyes like Europeans and who organized bushman hunts.

Unfortunately, the Fulani, the Hausa and the Igbo have been contaminated with Islam and Christianity.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

The evidence suggests that there is a genetic connection between indigenous ethnic groups in Asia, black people from indigenous ethnic groups in Africa and indigenous ethnic groups in this continent.

The reason the Bantu are not related to the Egyptians is because their eyes are more of the European type. But, although these Bantu hunted the Bushmen, there was also interbreeding of Bantu with Bushmen and possibly interbreeding of Bantu with the Fulani, the Hausa and the Igbo. It is possible that, due to the shape of their eyes, the Bantu are more related to the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians. The Bantu:
